an annual compilation of a series of readings and talks by innovative north american writers held at penn state university and in its adjacent borough state college the focus of the series is cross cultural literary experimentation with particular interest in the contemporary african american avant garde the present volume is based on an international colloquium convened in 2010 to which scholars from north america and europe contributed papers dealing with the historical cultural and literary connections between canada and the american south the essays on this broad but under researched topic are arranged in four sections reflecting the multiple ties and the cultural circulation between the two large north american regions they illuminate demographic facts and developments and their literary representations such as the enforced displacement of the 18th century acadiens who later reassembled in louisiana cajun culture and the flight of thousands of fugitive african american slaves to the safe haven of canada special attention is focused on the intertextual links between southern writers and their canadian counterparts with william faulkner and eudora welty especially providing inspiration for canadian authors such as alice munro jack hodgins and margaret responding to the comprehensive topic old environments new environments scholars from a variety of disciplines reflect the various connotations that the term environment carries in a canadian context whether moving within the realm of foreign policy visual arts constitutional questions tourism nature preservation or aboriginal rights these essays put the capaciousness and cohesiveness of the nation to the test by illustrating the pressures enforced upon it by multiculturalism the claims for self determination anti confederate agitation and globalisation the environments scrutinised are many and various but within each the linchpin remains the quest for identity on the part of the individual the group or the nation at large individually as well as collectively the essays in this volume constitute an important contribution to the ongoing debate on canadian ness
