in eighteenth century america fashion served as a site of contests over various forms of gendered power here kate haulman explores how and why fashion both as a concept and as the changing style of personal adornment linked gender relations social order commerce and political authority during a time when traditional hierarchies were in flux in the see and be seen port cities of boston new york philadelphia and charleston fashion a form of power and distinction was conceptually feminized yet pursued by both men and women across class ranks haulman shows that elite men and women in these cities relied on fashion to present their status but also attempted to undercut its ability to do so for others disdain for others fashionability was a means of safeguarding social position in cities where the modes of dress were particularly fluid and a way to maintain gender hierarchy in a world in which women s power as consumers was expanding concerns over gendered power expressed through fashion in dress haulman reveals shaped the revolutionary era struggles of the 1760s and 1770s influenced national political debates and helped to secure the exclusions of the new political order there is probably no responsibility in life more important rewarding frustrating and difficult as parenting one s mistakes are reflected in another person yet one s positive influence can lead to the happiness of another person and perhaps many there are guidebooks home made advice magazines and movies about it yet few do it well it seems although many may wish to and just how should it be done should music be played even before birth or special schools be sought out how can values be taught by many who have none themselves how should parents try to counter the environmental factors which play a role in their upbringing is each generation dumbing down and if so what can be done about it this book presents chapters which attack these issues and more in a scholarly format

this book analyzes the regulatory institutional and cultural factors that affect the ability of female entrepreneurs to do business in east asia and the pacific the authors give recommendations based on their analysis gender equality is central to the protection of human rights and the functioning of democracy it cannot be right that the experiences skills and concerns of women are not fully represented or reflected in decision making about the laws and functioning of the societies in which they live the regional study on women s political representation in the eastern partnership countries was commissioned in response to the key objectives of the council of europe and the european commission to address the lack of women s political representation at national and local level in these countries researchers based in each of the countries have contributed qualitative information on both the situation of women and on the experiences of women who have stood for elected office while the legal basis for equality of women and men exists in all the countries in question the reality is quite different stereotypical views and assumptions about the roles of women in society affect how women step forward as candidates and whether they are selected and elected the council of europe is convinced that this study by providing examples of good practice and evidence based practical recommendations will help to address the current imbalance of women holding elected office and by doing so will enhance democracy and human rights in the countries of the eastern partnership this reader provides a broad sample of both classic and contemporary psychological research on the issues of gender race and ethnicity making it a useful sourcebook for students
