winner of the 2016 George Barişiu prize in the mortuary archaeology of the medieval banat 10th 14th centuries silviu ota highlights the interactions between different ethnic groups as reflected in burial customs and funerary practices the book will deal with the banat as a whole as opposed to the romanian serbian or hungarian parts of the region since the modern political borders are not identical with the cultural boundaries in the middle ages on a more general level the goal of this book is to analyse the social dynamics in the region the author rejects the idea that any of the archaeological cultures identified in the banat e g the bjelo brdo culture may be associated with any single ethnic
