Understanding the Fair Housing Act FHA The Foundation of the Quiz The Fair Housing Act of 1968 amended several times since prohibits discrimination in housing based on Race Color National Origin Religion Sex Familial Status Disability These protected classes form the bedrock of most fair housing questions you'll encounter The quiz will test your ability to identify scenarios where these laws are violated and to understand the nuances of each protected class

Common Quiz Scenarios Analysis First Tuesday quizzes often present realistic scenarios Lets analyze a few common examples and how to approach them

Scenario 1 A real estate agent shows a family with young children only homes in neighborhoods with schools known to have a high percentage of children Analysis This is a violation of fair housing law While seemingly benign steering families 2 towards certain neighborhoods based on familial status is discriminatory and illegal The agent should present all suitable properties irrespective of the school demographic The correct answer in the quiz would likely highlight the violation of familial status protection

Scenario 2 An agent refuses to show a property to a prospective buyer because they use a wheelchair Analysis A clear violation of the Disability clause The agent must make reasonable accommodations for individuals with disabilities ensuring access to the property and considering necessary modifications The quiz might ask you to identify the specific law violated or the agents legal obligations

Scenario 3 A landlord refuses to rent an apartment to a single mother because she has children Analysis This violates the Familial Status protection Landlords cannot discriminate against families with children except in certain limited circumstances eg housing specifically designed for older adults The quiz might test your knowledge of these exceptions emphasizing the need for precise legal understanding

Scenario 4 An agent makes disparaging remarks about a particular ethnic group when discussing suitable neighborhoods with a client Analysis This is a blatant violation of fair housing laws Any comments even seemingly casual ones that express
