you see the full character of christ through the four different portraits in matthew mark luke and john each of them is painting a different picture not a contradictory one but filling it out with a new aspect matthew paints the king of the jews that is his object we now suddenly realise why matthew is the first in the new testament even if it was not the first to be written the answer is that it is the nearest gospel to the old testament the most jewish one that picks up the threads of all that has gone before

john is a remarkable gospel utterly different from the other three it reflects the unique insights of the man who was closest to jesus while he was on earth and is full of concern that we should not just know about what jesus did but should also realize who he was it reflects too john s burden the believers in jesus should not be side tracked by erroneous teaching whether concerning jesus identity or the veracity of his claims he wanted believers to be absolutely sure that eyewitnesses jesus own words and his astonishing works all point to one who was truly god come in the flesh the living word the very glory of god among humanity john s collected evidence and proof all make the most compelling testimony to jesus right to demand our on going trust and obedience
