this book presents a study and catalogue of the early christian stone architectural decorations from the negev desert israel this work is based on the largest sample of decorated architectural elements from the byzantine negev 4th 7th century ce to have been comparatively studied the analysis provides a key for the characteristics of these aniconic carved decorations and an in depth examination of their symbolic meaning paramount in the shaping of early byzantine identity was the construction of the church of hagia sophia in constantinople 532 537 ce this book examines the edifice from the perspective of aesthetics to define the concept of beauty and the meaning of art in early byzantium byzantine aesthetic thought is re evaluated against late antique neoplatonism and the writings of pseudo dionysius that offer fundamental paradigms for the late antique attitude towards art and beauty these metaphysical concepts of aesthetics are ultimately grounded in experiences of sensation and perception and reflect the ways in which the world and reality were perceived and grasped signifying the cultural identity of early byzantium there are different types of aesthetic data those present in the aesthetic object and those found in aesthetic responses to the object this study looks at the aesthetic data embodied in the sixth century architectural structure and interior decoration of hagia sophia as well as in literary responses ekphrasis to the building the purpose of the byzantine ekphrasis was to convey by verbal means the same effects that the artefact itself would have caused a literary analysis of these rhetorical descriptions recaptures the byzantine perception and expectations and at the same time reveals the cognitive processes triggered by the great church the central aesthetic feature that emerges from sixth century ekphraseis of hagia sophia is that of light light is described as the decisive element in the experience of the sacred space and light is simultaneously associated with the notion of wisdom it is argued that the concepts of light and wisdom are interwoven programmatic elements that underlie the unique architecture and non figurative decoration of hagia sophia a similar concern for the phenomenon of light and its epistemological dimension is reflected in other contemporary monuments testifying to the pervasiveness of these aesthetic values in early byzantium architectural sculpture and liturgical furniture are key genres of late antique and byzantine archaeology and art and this book provides the first general overview it offers two alternative ways of access via technical terms and illustrations it can thus serve as dictionary if a term requires explanation and illustration or as a visual gazetteer for the research of artefacts in addition the volume can also serve as an academic textbook colouring books for adults are a relatively new phenomenon and many people are still unaware of the benefits that can be achieved by a little time spent doing something as simple as colouring different terms are often used to describe adult colouring with mindfulness and art therapy being the most popular at this moment in time personally i believe relaxartation better describes the precious moments spent relaxing and colouring my relax art ation series of books covers a range of popular themes that many people will find calming and inspiring rather than simple patterns and shapes the first colours of books are dedicated to travel and popular culture colours of italy takes you on a pictorial journey around a country steeped in history the legacy of the roman empire almost seems visible in every town and village rome is also home to the vatican and the two thousand years of history that accompany the roman catholic church the influence of the two cannot be denied but italy is more than the sum of its parts the birthplace of some of the world greatest artists from da vinci to michelangelo it has a long history of what the italians call artisan these days it is just as famous for being the home to the likes of ferrari maserati lamborghini bvlgari d g fendi gucci moschino prada trussardi the islamic world drew upon a myriad of pre existing styles of fortification taking romano byzantine indian and chinese ideas to create a highly effective and sophisticated hybrid fortification that was both new and distinctive this book examines early saracen fortifications covering their historical background socio political circumstances and their role in protecting industry trade and the frontiers of the islamic world from the mayyad castles in the desert of jordan and syria to the round city of baghdad and the great gates of cairo this book provides an insight into the majesty of the saracen forts illustrated with specially commissioned artwork and cutaways together with photographs of period engravings and images of the sites today it has long been an accepted assumption that the abstracted mode of visual representation that emerged in late antiquity reflected a collective shift from the outer directed and material world view of classical antiquity to an inner directed spiritual mentality informed by christianity the purpose of this volume is to offer a more nuanced and diverse image of the nature and meanings of abstraction and symbolism in late antique and early medieval art beyond normative intepretation models and from a number of different methodological and interpretative perspectives in ten chapters ten authors specialised in various fields of late antique and byzantine art explore the historiographical background of the spiritual interpretation paradigm neuroscientific and theological dimensions of christian visual aesthetics meanings and motive factors behind apparently wholly abstract and aniconic compositions symbolic motifs and schemes for visualising cosmic order and the cosmic state of christ and the re use of symbolic greco roman themes in christian contexts the result is a multi focal image of late antique abstraction and symbolism that illuminates the heterogeneity and complexity of the phenomena and of their study this comprehensive volume seeks out ways in which those who are typically marginalized by or excluded from tourism can be brought into the industry in ways that directly benefit them it addresses the central questions asked by an inclusive tourism approach who is included on what terms with what significance tourism is often understood and experienced as an exclusive activity accessible only to the relatively wealthy this volume seeks to counter that tendency by exploring how marginalized groups can gain more control over tourism the book starts by defining the concept of inclusive tourism and discussing seven different elements which might indicate inclusivity in tourism research from a wide range of geographical contexts from cambodia to australia sweden turkey and spain have been drawn upon to illustrate the need for more inclusive tourism the examples encompass the actions of a multinational tour operator hotel owners and social enterprises while also examining how to ensure tourism is accessible for those with disabilities inclusive tourism is offered here as both an analytical concept and an aspirational ideal the authors hope that this book inspires a restless quest to find ways to include new actors and new places in tourism on terms that are equitable and sustainable the chapters were originally published as a special issue of the journal tourism georgraphies
