Practical Examples Putting Theory into Practice

Lets look at a practical example involving Contract Law and Negligence

Tort Law Scenario

A company orders bespoke software from a developer The software is delivered late contains bugs and doesnt meet the specifications outlined in the contract This scenario involves both contract law breach of contract and potentially tort law negligence if the developer failed to exercise reasonable care

Questions this might raise and how to approach them using past paper knowledge

Contract Law What are the remedies available to the company for breach of contract Think damages specific performance Youd find relevant cases and legal principles in past papers

Tort Law Did the developer owe a duty of care to the company Was this duty breached What damages might be claimed Again reference past papers for relevant case law and principles

Visual Example A simple flow chart could illustrate the steps to analyzing such a scenario

Identify the Contract Identify the Breach Assess Remedies Contract Assess Duty of Care Tort Assess Breach of Duty Tort Assess Damages Contract Tort
