like the work of an artist who molds a lump of clay the spirit s sanctifying work lies in shaping people into the image of christ avoiding either a spirit only or a spirit void theology leopoldo sánchez carefully crafts a spirit christology which considers the role of god s spirit in the life and mission of jesus and leads to five distinct models of sanctification that can help christians discern how the spirit is at work in our lives in irenaeus on the trinity jackson lashier provides a fresh reading of irenaeus understanding of god in dialogue with his opponents and sources which reveals a more developed trinitarian theology than traditionally thought key trinitarian themes that emerge are the fatherhood of god the mutual indwelling relations of father son and spirit and the cooperative divine work of all three in the economy the study finds irenaeus thought to depart in these areas from standard second century trajectories apologists and gnostics moving trinitarian theology in the direction of more developed trinitarian thought of later centuries this monograph offers not only a better understanding of irenaeus thought but also a fuller picture of the development of trinitarian thought in early christianity most theology proceeds under the assumption that divine grace works on human beings at the points of our supposed uniqueness among earth s creatures our freedom our self awareness our language or our rationality inner animalities turns this assumption on its head arguing that much theological anthropology contains a deeply anti ecological impulse the book draws creatively on historical and scriptural texts to imagine an account of human life centered in our creaturely commonality the tendency to deny our own human animality leaves our self understanding riven with contradictions disavowals and repressions how are human relationships transformed when god draws us into communion through our instincts our desires and our bodily needs meyer argues that humanity s exceptional status is not the result of divine endorsement but a delusion of human sin where the work of god knits human beings back into creaturely connections ecological degradation is no longer just a matter of bodily life and death but a matter of ultimate significance bringing a theological perspective to the growing field of critical animal studies inner animalities puts gregory of nyssa and karl rahner in conversation with jacques derrida giorgio agamben kelly oliver and cary wolfe what results is not only a counterintuitive account of human life in relation with nonhuman neighbors but also a new angle into ecological theology
