Constitutional Law Essay Questions And Answers Cracking the Code Constitutional Law Essay Questions Answers So youre staring down the barrel of a constitutional law essay Dont panic While the subject can seem daunting a labyrinth of precedents interpretations and amendments with the right approach you can conquer even the most challenging questions This guide will equip you with the tools and strategies to not only answer constitutional law essay questions effectively but to actually enjoy the process yes really Understanding the Beast Deconstructing Constitutional Law Essay Questions Before diving into answers lets understand how to dissect the question itself Most constitutional law essays will follow a specific structure often presenting a hypothetical scenario or a specific legal issue rooted in constitutional principles Heres a breakdown Visual A simple flowchart showing the steps Identify the Key Issue Identify Relevant Constitutional Provisions Analyze Relevant Case Law Formulate an Argument Conclude

- 1 Identify the Key Issue What is the central constitutional question being asked Is it about freedom of speech due process equal protection federalism or something else entirely Underline key terms and phrases to pinpoint the core problem Example Discuss the constitutionality of a state law requiring all public schools to begin the day with a mandatory prayer The key issue here is the Establishment Clause of the First Amendment which prohibits the government from establishing a religion
- 2 Identify Relevant Constitutional Provisions Once youve identified the key issue pinpoint the relevant clauses or amendments of the Constitution Dont just mention them explain their relevance to the specific question Example For the prayer question you would discuss the Establishment Clause of the First Amendment perhaps referencing the Lemon Test Lemon v Kurtzman which helps determine if a government action violates the Establishment Clause
- 3 Analyze Relevant Case Law This is where your legal research skills come in Find and analyze relevant Supreme Court cases and potentially lower court cases that address similar constitutional issues Dont just summarize the cases explain how the precedents apply to the specific facts of your hypothetical scenario Example In the prayer case youd discuss cases like Engel v Vitale mandatory prayer in public schools is unconstitutional and Abington School District v Schempp mandatory Bible reading is unconstitutional Youd analyze how these cases establish legal principles relevant to the hypothetical scenario
- 4 Formulate an Argument Based on your analysis of the constitutional provisions and relevant case law formulate a clear and wellsupported argument This should be a reasoned discussion not just a list of facts Consider counterarguments and address them thoughtfully Example You might argue that the mandatory prayer violates the Establishment Clause because it constitutes government endorsement of religion failing the Lemon Test criteria Youd acknowledge potential arguments for the law eg promoting school unity but refute them based on established legal precedents
- 5 Conclude Summarize your main points and restate your conclusion clearly and concisely

the current trend toward machine scoring of student work ericsson and haswell argue has created an emerging issue with implications for higher education across the disciplines but with particular importance for those in english departments and in administration the academic community has been silent on the issue some would say excluded from it while the commercial entities who develop essay scoring software have been very active machine scoring of student essays is the first volume to seriously consider the educational mechanisms and consequences of this trend and it offers important discussions from some of the leading scholars in writing assessment reading and evaluating student writing is a time consuming process yet it is a vital part of both student placement and coursework at post secondary institutions in recent years commercial computer evaluation programs have been developed to score student essays in both of these contexts two year colleges have been especially drawn to these programs but four year institutions are moving to them as well because of the cost savings they promise unfortunately to a large extent the programs have been written and institutions are installing them without attention to their instructional validity or adequacy since the education software companies are moving so rapidly into what they perceive as a promising new market a wider discussion of machine scoring is vital if scholars hope to influence development and or implementation of the programs being created what is needed then is a critical resource to help teachers and administrators evaluate programs they might be considering and to more fully envision the instructional consequences of adopting them and this is the resource that ericsson and haswell are providing here
