Culture shapes our values beliefs and preferences impacting consumer choices significantly For example the preference for certain foods or clothing styles varies drastically across different cultures

Situational Factors

These are the immediate context surrounding a purchase including time pressure physical environment and the presence of others A consumer shopping for a gift 2 at the last minute might make impulsive decisions compared to someone with ample time

III The Consumer Decision Making Process StepbyStep

Blythes work implicitly guides us towards understanding the stages involved in a purchase decision which can be outlined as follows

- 1 Problem Recognition Recognizing a need or want Example Realizing your old phone is outdated
- 2 Information Search Gathering information about potential solutions Example Researching different phone models online reading reviews
- 3 Evaluation of Alternatives Comparing different options based on criteria Example Weighing the pros and cons of different phones based on features price and reviews
- 4 Purchase Decision Choosing a product and making the purchase Example Buying a specific phone model
- 5 PostPurchase

Evaluation Assessing satisfaction with the purchase Example
Reviewing the phones performance and whether it met expectations
This is crucial as it influences future purchasing decisions IV
