tibetan buddhist philosophy of mind and nature is a philosophical overview of tibetan buddhist thought charting the different ways buddhist traditions in tibet configure the relationship between madhyamaka and mind only duckworth shows how these configurations inform the shape of distinct contemplative practices in the early part of the twentieth century a visionary named ernest holmes began a journey of exploration and research that profoundly affected thinkers throughout america his work based on the teachings of the great philosophers the sacred wisdom of both eastern and western traditions and the empirical nature of science offers a philosophy of religion and psychology emphasizing the limitless potential of the human mind now for the first time the science of mind appears in paperback to coincide with the seventieth anniversary of ernest holmes s founding of the religious science movement this book contains the fundamentals of holmes s teachings and is a primary resource used by teaching centers and spiritual healers worldwide its universal principles apply to people of all spiritual backgrounds as they describe a higher level of existence attainable through the use of nature s forces and the power of god while imparting an unrivaled technique for living dr holmes s classic guide speaks clearly to a complex world caught in transition and searching for guidance compiled in the fifteenth century mind training the great collection is the earliest anthology of a special genre of tibetan literature known as mind training or lojong in tibetan the principal focus of these texts is the systematic cultivation of such altruistic thoughts and emotions as compassion love forbearance and perseverance the mind training teachings are highly revered by the tibetan people for their pragmatism and down to earth advice on coping with the various challenges and hardships that unavoidably characterize everyday human existence the volume contains forty four individual texts including the most important works of the mind training cycle such as serlingpa s well known leveling out all preconceptions atisha s bodhisattva s jewel garland langri thangpa s eight verses on training the mind and chekawa s seven point mind training together with the earliest commentaries on these seminal texts an accurate and lyrical translation of these texts many of which are in metered verse marks an important contribution to the world s literary heritage enriching its spiritual resources this book includes extensively annotated translations of seminal works by the korean buddhist exegete wonhyo along with a lengthy introduction framing those materials for a nonspecialist audience
