this one volume history chronicles a 150 year history of dramatic changes in fortune and attitudes in western canada from the riel rebellions and the winnipeg general strike to the founding of the ccf social credit and reform parties canada s west has always been a hotbed of political social and economic change in the early twentieth century those calls for change emanated from the left as farmers and workers fought for social and economic justice in the past two decades the protests and calls for change emanated from the right as the region gained a new role for itself in canada this history chronicles the rise and fall of such figures as grant devine bill vander zalm glen clark roy romanow stockwell day and lorne calvert and the emergence of stephen harper and the federal conservatives it describes how the west the political wellspring of progressive changes over the years has been transformed into the bastion of the right culminating in the virtual annihilation of the ndp in saskatchewan the cradle of social democracy in canada this is the updated fourth edition of john conway s classic book originally published under the title the west each of the essays in this collection considers what lies beyond the limiting discourses of childhood innocence instead of focusing on how children grow up as has been the focus of developmental science for over a century we ask what it might mean for discourses of childhood to finally grow out of childhood innocence the authors featured in this volume explore this question through critical approaches that actively refuse the limits of normative and normalizing conceptions of the child by surfacing and centering complex multiplicitous configurations of childhood together these perspectives challenge existing discourses and social practices to reveal how power operates in and through the child and its uses
