winner of the aia book prize for a research monograph in the field of english language and linguistics 2016 common patterns of interactions are altered in the digital world and new patterns of communication have emerged challenging previous notions of what communication actually is in the contemporary age online configurations of interaction such as video chats blogging and social networking practices demand profound rethinking of the categories of linguistic analysis given the blurring of traditional distinctions between oral and written discourse in digital texts this volume reconsiders underlying linguistic and semiotic frameworks of analysis of spoken and written discourse in the light of the new paradigms of online communication in keeping with a multimodal corpus linguistics theoretical framework typical modes of online interaction encompass speech writing gesture movement gaze and social distance this is nothing new but here sindoni asserts that all these modes are integrated in unprecedented ways enacting new interactional patterns and new systems of interpretation among web users these non verbal modes have been sidelined by mainstream linguistics whereas accounting for the complexity of new genres and making sense of their educational impact is high on this volume's agenda sindoni analyzes other new phenomena ranging from the intimate sphere i.e. video chats personal blogs or journals on social networking websites to the public arena i.e. global scale transmission of information and knowledge in public blogs or media sharing communities shedding light on the rapidly changing global web scenario jesus said blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see god matthew 5:8 the bible progressively reveals a glorious description of god the father beginning with moses in the book of genesis and ending with what john saw in the book of revelation the author has done massive research showing that the bible is full of descriptions of the glory of god this is a unique book one of kind about the visual glory of god it is incredible that nothing has been written about this aspect of the glory of god since one of the basic meanings of glory is visual brilliance and splendor it is true that no man has seen god because he has hidden himself for several reasons man would die if he saw him man would make an idol of him god desires that man have faith in an unseen god many theologians maintain that god cannot be seen that he has no face or form because he is spirit invisible and omnipresent the book addresses these concepts jesus however said that he has seen god and that angels see his face this book should be in the shelves of every seminary bible school minister's study and in the hand of every person as a help in bible study or in seeking to know more about god may it inspire every christian to anticipate that day in heaven when they shall see jesus and god the father
