shortly after the overwhelming victory of hamas in the 2006 parliamentary and municipal elections civil war broke out in the gaza strip between members of the two factions hamas and fatah the eu along with the us un and russia not only gave its support to fatah against hamas but also imposed a tough siege on the hamas government in an attempt to force it to accept the quartet s political conditions described by hamas leaders as unfair and impossible many observers are convinced that the eu s behaviour in this matter has been unreasonable and has conflicted with the eu s own democratic beliefs and values this book sheds light on the eu s policies in palestine mainly from 2003 2013 and provides a thorough examination of the inconsistencies and paradoxes in the eu discourse towards hamas and the determinants underlying such contradictions it explores the reasons behind the eu labelling the hamas a terrorist organization and discusses why the eu has boycotted its democratically elected body since 2006 significantly the book looks at whether the eu jeopardized its reputation and contravened its core normative values and objectives democracy promotion human rights the rule of law and fundamental freedoms by such a categorisation of hamas exploring the eu s policy towards hamas is vital for understanding how the relationship between the eu and the rest of the islamists in the middle east is perceived as it enables both sides to have a cognitive basis upon which to construct better relations this book based upon a vast spread of primary eu documents and interviews will therefore be a valuable resource for those studying the arab israeli conflict political islamic movements the middle east peace process and anyone with an interest in european union foreign policy this book addresses the different forms of austerity contestation and resistance in order to understand how they relate to one another and the impact they have on the democratic quality of public debates the trust in public institutions and the legitimacy of law contestation of austerity includes not only traditional activism strategies such as human rights litigation and direct democracy instruments but also new forms of collective action and collaborative resistance most importantly many of the new anti austerity initiatives also aim to renovate existing modes of democratic decision making on the european national regional and local levels the book focuses on different types of contesting austerity measures and the interaction between institutional and civil society actors it will enhance understanding of how the various actors frame not only their goal but also the underlying social conflict to contest austerity and through which means they try to achieve political and legal changes with 16 chapters written by contributors from spain germany greece portugal and the uk the book approaches 3 crucial areas of austerity policies cuts in payment and pensions labour law reform and old and new poverty in each field the contributors analyse the processes of decision making and contestation from 3 perspectives institutions democratic theory and societal responses this book studies relevant actors and practices of conflict intervention by african regional organizations and their intimate connection to space making addressing a major gap regarding what actually happens within and around these organizations based on extensive empirical research it argues that those intervention practices are essentially spatializing practices based on particular spatial imaginations contributing to the continuous construction and formatting of regional spaces as well as to ordering relations between different regional spaces analyzing the field of developing practices of conflict intervention by the economic community of west african states ecowas and the african union au the book contributes a new theory oriented analytical approach to study african regional organizations ros and the complex dynamics of african peace and security based on insights from critical geography as such it helps to close an empirical gap with regard to the internal modes of operation of african ros as well as the lack of their theorization it demonstrates that contrary to most accounts intervention practices of african ros have been diverse and complexly interrelated involving different actors within and around these organizations and are essentially tied to the space making this book will be of key interest to students and scholars of african politics governance peace and security studies international or regional organizations and more broadly to comparative regionalism international relations and international studies
