the epistle to the hebrews is usually associated with its theology of christ the high priest however the term high priest is not so common in the first four chapters of hebrews occurring only four times with a further reference to sacrifice in 1 3 rather than emphasising the priestly or sacrificial activity of christ these opening sections contain a number of references to creation 1 2 3 10 12 2 5 9 10 3 1 6 4 3 4 and 4 9 10 in this volume angela costley uses discourse analysis to explore the importance of the topic of creation to the discourse of the epistle to the hebrews uncovering a close link between creation and salvation she highlights the interaction of the topic of creation with the topic of salvation in the discourse to uncover a depiction of christ as the creator who descends to take on human flesh god who becomes human in order to lead humanity heavenward the paper in this volume are organized in three parts scriptural contextual and theological the central question being addressed is how do christians living in contexts where islam is a majority or minority religion experience express or think of the cross this is therefore an exercise in listening as the contexts from where these engagements arise are varied the papers in drawing scriptural contextual and theological reflections offer a cross section of christian thinking about jesus and the cross what actually makes a person become a new creation in christ and what should be the lifestyle of the new creation in christ this book reveals some of the realities of the new creation in christ that can be compared to a metamorphosis knowing what makes a person become a new creation in christ is the beginning of a good strong and successful christian life it helps the person to identify themselves and what they have to accomplish god purposed plan of life for them in christ good to be read by the just born again and all that seeks to grow into spiritual maturity we cannot know god in depth without recognizing and acknowledging his absolute glorious sovereignty over all things in all times and in every aspect of our lives he is lord and his will reigns supreme when we finally come to this conclusion when our thoughts prayers and daily actions finally align at last with the teachings of scripture on this most important matter we will know him better as a consequence the good works to which we were ordained in the new birth will glorify god in his sovereignty the gospel in creation is a nicely illustrated work setting forth clearly and simply the relation between god s work in creation and redemption the signs of power and greatness that mark the handiwork of god in the visible universe are shown to be but indications of the unfailing strength with which he works in the lives of those who submit to his will the confirmation of the truths of the gospel drawn from the study of the creation will make this book a valuable one to all who are watching with interest the attacks that are now made on the authority of the bible this book sets out to interpret henri de lubac s theology of creation from a christological perspective the challenge of this research has been the absence of a systematic christology in the writings of de lubac yet it is possible to posit a lubacian christology by sifting through the author s work on a myriad of subjects the point of entry is the patristic distinction between image and likeness whereby image is understood as an inamissible seal which bestows the divine prerogatives of reason freedom immortality and dominion over nature likeness is a potential given at creation and realised in the course of the economy of salvation de lubac describes it variously as divinisation divine union the supernatural dignity of the human being and participation in the internal movement of the trinity the originality of this book consists in the gradual emergence of the role of christ in the process whereby image becomes likeness de lubac records his intention to publish a book on jesus christ an ambition he never realised the present book does not just illustrate the omnipresence of christ in the writings of de lubac but dares to delineate what a lubacian christology would look like with contributions from eminent theologians from different countries confessions disciplines and interests this volume celebrates the immense breadth and influence of t f torrance contributors include r e clements matthew black r s barbour alasdair heron dietrich ritschl robert w jenson d m mackinnon allan d galloway jürgen moltmann noel dermot o donoghue stanley l jaki thomas a langford j houston enda mcdonagh john mcintyre eberhard jünger richard w a mckinney s w sykes john heywood thomas lesslie newbiggin christ and the cross are the center and the reality of the bible in their writing all the apostles emphasized christ and the cross and when we know this matter we will truly appreciate the preciousness of the bible in order for us to grow in life to see the spiritual things and the spiritual way and to be proper christians we must know christ and the cross a person who does not know christ and the cross cannot do a spiritual work or service that satisfies god s heart in order to grow spiritually or do a spiritual work such as preaching the gospel or administrating the church we must know christ and the cross within the last forty years scientific discoveries and knowledge about our universe contain unprecedented theological implications they imply that the creator exists more so than ever before these discoveries have developed a worldview that challenges both theologians and scientists to engage in a mutually fruitful dialogue from creation to re creation uniquely presents god s accomplishments as author daniel lazich transports himself to a time when authors wrote creation narratives to depict the contrast between the ancient epics and biblical narrative it forcefully asserts that the creation of this world and humankind was accomplished by the creator who loves humanity selflessly this assertion is backed by the most advanced study and research concerning our universe s nature lazich writes that the final observer in quantum cosmology and god in the bible are the same from creation to re creation employs unprecedented theological implications to assert that the creator s existence is necessary for the universe and humankind in it to exist first god believed and then he called what he had inside his heart to existence in the book the reality of god s creation we can understand that the reality our eyes see day by day is not nearly what the father wished for us and through jesus christ we have access to this reality lost by sin god s word is the most potent encyclopedia in life however it would be a mysterious unknown if there were not god s great will through the anointing of the spirit both to write it and to interpret it from this formula the result comes revelation in possession of it what remains is to live enjoying a life carefully planned by our god and father moreover nothing is better than knowing how everything was planned just know the manual of life the word of god consulting how everything was planned in the beginning pastor atlas freire purpose and destiny to discover the purpose of human existence is undoubtedly one of the most thought out questions of our time we live in an age when our society is hungry for a purpose for a mission for a real sense who is a human being what is your place within the planet and society when god created man he had a goal nothing was done by chance and everything is wholly connected according to his magnificence you have a purpose and a destiny and until you find out which one you will never be complete and successful in your life once you know your purpose god will show your destiny edited by david platt daniel l akin and tony merida this commentary series takes a christ centered approach to expositing each book of the bible each chapter explains and applies key passages providing helpful outlines for study and teaching
