special economic zones sezs have become a permanent feature of the world trade scene this book the first to provide a critical and comprehensive analysis of sezs covering a wide spectrum of countries and regions shows how sezs albeit established at the domestic level by different countries raise multiple legal issues under international economic law this first rate book is the product of the asia fdi forum iv held in hong kong in 2018 thoroughly exploring the development of the sez phenomenon and its players the contributing authors all leading economic law experts review the issues raised by sezs in the context of international trade law international investment law and investment arbitration they identify the extent to which sezs have been coherent in their design and policymaking in particular with regard to domestic law reforms they address such aspects both core themes and specific examples as the following investment protection in china s sezs state owned enterprises regulation dispute settlement under what circumstances incentives available in sezs count as export subsidies prohibited under world trade organization wto rules compliance with internal market rules in european union eu free zones local populations as victims of land expropriation brazil s manaus free trade zone india s experience with multiple sezs the administrative approval system in the shanghai free trade zone economic corridors and transit routes as sezs refugee cities sezs for migrants how china s supreme people s court serves national strategy how foreign investors challenge free zone regimes impacts of the establishment of sezs on tax revenues sezs and labour migration and management models the chapters also include insights into the new emerging generation of international investment agreements wto accession transparency and case law materials clarifying specific trade issues associated with sezs and new rules to protect the environment and labour rights as well as analysis of crucially significant cases such as goetz v the republic of burundi lee jong baek v kyrgyzstan and ampal american and others v egypt with its critical and comprehensive analysis of the dynamic sez phenomenon across legal economic investment regulatory and policy matrices including a thorough analysis of the success factors and required policies for sezs this book takes a giant step towards answering the question whether sezs fundamentally contradict norms of international law or whether sezs have to be considered as laboratories which facilitate the implementation of international economic policies its careful examination of theory and practice and its approach to lessons learned from case studies will reward trade and investment officials policymakers diplomats economists lawyers think tanks business leaders and others interested in this ever more important area of law and economics for countries as diverse as china and mauritius special economic zones sezs have been a powerful tool to attract foreign investment promote export oriented growth and generate employment for many others the results have been less than encouraging while the benefits and limitations of zones will no doubt continue to be debated what is clear is that policymakers are increasingly attracted to them as an instrument of trade investment industrial and spatial policy since the mid 1980s the number of newly established zones has grown rapidly in almost all regions with dramatic growth in developing countries in parallel with this growth and in the evolving context of global trade and investment zones are also undergoing significant change in both their form and function with traditional export processing zones epzs increasingly giving way to larger and more flexible sez models this new context will bring significant opportunities for developing countries to take advantage of sezs but will also raise new challenges to their successful design and implementation this volume aims to contribute to a better understanding of the role and practice of sezs in developing countries in order to better equip policymakers in making effective decisions in planning and implementing sez programs it covers some of the emerging issues and challenges in sezs including upgrading regional integration wto compliance innovation the environment and gender issues with practical case examples from sez programs in developing countries special economic zones are specially delineated duty free enclaves deemed to be foreign territories for the purposes of trade operations duties and tariffs sezs include development of roads airports ports telecom generation and distribution of power construction of industrial commercial residential complexes etc encouraged by the phenomenal success of sezs of people s republic of china which first used this model as a measure to attract foreign capital technology and managerial expertise the indian government announced in the exim policy of march 2000 a scheme for setting up sezs in the country the special economic zones act which was enacted subsequently in the year 2005 has been subject to much debate and discussion from politicians to businessmen from journalists to social activists all have expressed different views thereon while some have hailed it as a new mantra for export oriented economic activity others have criticized it for giving excessive tax and tariff concessions to sez developers the government is keen to promote the establishment of these large self contained areas supported by world class infrastructure oriented towards export promotion the present book special economic zones issues laws and procedures in two volumes studies in detail the various aspects of policy relating to sezs different problems relating to people s apprehensions about these models of growth displacement of a large number of landowners environmental pollution likely to be caused by huge industrial units being set up in the sezs the inter ministerial differences over the issue of unprecedented concessions incentives and sops being given to the developers etc have been discussed in the four analytical articles written by economic experts making valuable suggestions besides articles by erudite experts the book contains documents relating to sezs in matters like foreign trade policy income tax central sales tax customs duty circulars and orders of related ministries government departments and reserve bank of india and laws and subsequent amendments concerning sez policy of the government the book includes the land acquisition act 1894 national policy for resettlement and rehabilitation of project affected families 2003 national rehabilitation policy 2006 and resettlement rehabilitation policy nhpc 2007 also given in this book are documents containing the policy framework of states such wide coverage makes this book a unique treatise on special economic zones it will prove highly useful for mncs sez developers policymakers lawyers businessmen and students the general readers will also find it interesting and informative
