a timely deeply personal biography of a jewish leader whose questions for israel have come back to haunt us with a vengeance born in what is now lviv ukraine in 1869 marcus ehrenpreis was the secretary of theodor herzl at the first zionist congress in basel in 1897 a grand rabbi of bulgaria during two balkan wars a diplomat in defense of europe s minorities a swedish author compared to joseph conrad the chief rabbi of one of europe s few unscathed jewish communities through the nazi era more than a biography of a man s life and work this book is a literary journey by award winning swedish jewish writer and public intellectual göran rosenberg a brief stop on the road from auschwitz in search of that european jewish world of meaning and hope that ehrenpreis so clearly embodied so vividly articulated and so relentlessly worked to explain defend and salvage from his pulpit in stockholm his lifelong dream was to build a bridge between israel and the peoples and he believed that he could do so by bringing a spiritually and culturally revitalized judaism into a new and self asserted contact with the non jewish world his zionism was not about making jews a nation like all others in a nation state like all others but creating a spiritual and cultural center for the renaissance of jewish life amidst the nations even as jewish life in europe was all but annihilated he feared what jewish nationalism might do to the spiritual heritage of judaism a meticulously researched and beautifully written story of boundless hope unrequited love and annihilated possibilities another zionism another judaism evokes a diasporic jewish existence that would be harshly judged in the aftermath of the holocaust and the creation of the state of israel it also reminds us of a zionism that strived for something other than an ethnic national fortress on a narrow strip of land in the middle east combining history politics and critical analysis he revisits the killing fields of cambodia documents the three month hutu machete genocide of about 800 000 tutsi villagers in rwanda and casts recent headlines from kosovo in the light of these other conflicts book jacket
