adopters and reviewers praise intermediate accounting 4e by spiceland sepe tomassini for its superior readability strong supplements package learning system good eoc real world flavor consistent quality and high student engagement sst 4e will gain support in both traditional and progressive accounting departments especially those looking for a more concise decision making text that reinforces challenging concepts the authors have created a flexible text with a student friendly writing style that focuses on explaining not only how to apply a procedure but why it is applied. SST 4e is built around a learning system designed to prepare students for the new CPA exam and the business world by emphasizing decision making acknowledging the diversity of students and their learning styles the authors have created a clear text and varied supplemental materials to aid the success of every student. SST 4e also provides a flexible and consistent supplemental package for instructors.

Financial accounting is undergoing a period of unprecedented change. The FASB and IASB have been working together to issue converged accounting standards that will dramatically change key reporting areas and more generally have sought to converge accounting standards over time. In late 2011 the SEC will announce its decision on whether large public companies in the U.S. will be able to choose whether to report under U.S. GAAP or IFRS or if all companies are anticipated to be reporting under IFRS in the near future. So while there currently is considerable overlap between U.S. GAAP and IFRS and that overlap is increasing as convergence continues, important differences remain to help instructors deal with the challenging environment. The Spiceland team is committed to providing current comprehensive and clear coverage of intermediate accounting. The 7th edition reflects this commitment with the following innovations:
