before violence tore apart the tapestry of sri lanka and turned its pristine beaches red there were two families yasodhara tells the story of her own sinhala family rich in love with everything they could ask for as a child in idyllic colombo yasodhara s and her siblings lives are shaped by social hierarchies their parents ambitions teenage love and subtly the differences between tamil and sinhala people but the peace is shattered by the tragedies of war yasodhara s family escapes to los angeles but yasodhara s life has already become intertwined with a young tamil girl s saraswathie is living in the active war zone of sri lanka and hopes to become a teacher but her dreams for the future are abruptly stamped out when she is arrested by a group of sinhala soldiers and pulled into the very heart of the conflict that she has tried so hard to avoid a conflict that eventually will connect her and yasodhara in unexpected ways nayomi munaweera s island of a thousand mirrors is an emotionally resonant saga of cultural heritage heartbreaking conflict and deep family bonds narrated in two unforgettably authentic voices and spanning the entirety of the decades long civil war it offers an unparalleled portrait of a beautiful land during its most difficult moment by a spellbinding new literary talent who promises tremendous things to come straddling opposite side of the long and brutal civil war in sri lanka two girls one sinhala the other tamil navigate their histories sibling rivalries and adolescent heartbreaks the burdens of exile and belonging and the harsh demands of survival written in stirring prose that evokes the beauty of the island country and the bloodshed that has destroyed it nayomi munaweera s debut novel is a haunting tale of lives distorted by terrible violence cover in the global south women have and continue to resist multiple forms of structural violence the atrocities committed against yazidi women by isis have been recognized internationally and the nobel peace prize awarded to nadia murad in 2018 was a tribute to honor women whose bodies have been battered in the name of race nationality war and religion in the crossfire of history women s war resistance discourse in the global south is an edited collection that incorporates literary works testimonies autobiographies women s resistance movements and films that add to the conversation on the resilience of women in the global south the collection focuses on palestine kashmir syria kurdisthan congo argentina central america sri lanka and bangladesh the essays question historical accuracy and politics of representation that usually undermine women s role during conflict and they reevaluate how women participated challenged sacrificed and vehemently opposed war discourses that erase women's role in shaping resistance movements the transformative mode of these examples expands the definition of heroism and defiance to prevent these types of heroism from slipping into the abyss of history this collection brings forth and celebrates women's fortitude in conflict zones in the crossfire of history shines a light on women across the globe who are resisting the sociopolitical and economic injustices in their nation states
