a lively and eye opening popular history of islamic civilization islam has been one of the most powerful religious social and political forces in history over the last 1400 years from origins in arabia a succession of muslim polities and later empires expanded to control territories and peoples that ultimately stretched from southern france to east africa and south east asia yet many of the contributions of muslim thinkers scientists and theologians not to mention rulers statesmen and soldiers have been occluded this book rescues from oblivion and neglect some of these personalities and institutions while offering the reader a new narrative of this lost islamic history the umayyads abbasids and ottomans feature in the story as do muslim spain the savannah kingdoms of west africa and the mughal empire along with the later european colonization of muslim lands and the development of modern nation states in the muslim world throughout the impact of islamic belief on scientific advancement social structures and cultural development is given due prominence and the text is complemented by portraits of key personalities inventions and little known historical nuggets the history of islam and of the world s muslims brings together diverse peoples geographies and states all interwoven into one narrative that begins with muhammad and continues to this day analysing an extensive range of texts and publications across multiple genres formats and literary lineages reclaiming karbala studies the emergence and formation of a viable muslim identity in bengal over the late 19th century through the 1940s beginning with an explanation of the tenets of the battle of karbala this multi layered study explores what it means to be muslim as well as the nuanced relationship between religion linguistic identity and literary modernity that marks both bengaliness and muslimness in the region this book is an intervention into the literature on regional islam in bengal offering a complex perspective on the polemic on religion and language in the formation of a jatiya bengali muslim identity in a multilingual context this book by placing this polemic in the context of intra islamic reformist conflict shows how all these rival reformist groups unanimously negated the karbala centric commemorative ritual of muharram and shī ī intercessory piety to secure a pro caliphate sensibility as the core value of the bengali muslim public sphere islam in historical perspective is a general introduction to islam and the history of muslim societies richly illustrated by quotations and images from muslim scripture historical chronicles artistic works and theological and juridical treatises it invites the reader to examine this evidence and to form a comprehensive understanding of islam s evolution from its inception in arabia to the present day combining chronological and thematic principles this book examines muslims political and intellectual struggles over the meaning and practical implications of their faith treating islam as a language that various factions and generations of muslims have used to express their grievances aspirations and personal experiences and preferences the book shows the religion s remarkable potency as a social political and cultural force and source of identity it also describes and analyses muslim devotional practices emotional responses to the revelation artistic and intellectual creativity and patterns of everyday existence the goal of this book is to help the reader to develop personal empathy for the subject by showing the relevance of the dilemmas faced by muslims in different epochs and geographical locations to the burning issues of today s world a thorough analysis of pivotal events trends and personalities of islamic history is accompanied by witness accounts showing how they were perceived by muslims themselves this new edition features a thoroughly revised text updated bibliography new illustrations study questions and chapter summaries and is an outstanding resource for students of islam and muslim civilization the islamic positioning of islamophobia is presented in this book through islamic or muslim perspectives the book engages with various islamic texts and discourses spoken and written emanating from preachers and scholars of islam to discuss the points of convergence and divergence with the western interpretation of the phenomenon the book aims to look at islamophobia from a hitherto unexplored angle by first analyzing the points of convergence and divergence between the internal muslim and external western perspectives and then by providing new approaches to curbing islamophobia through a holistic spiritual dimension of islam and cultural memory the book contends that the bridges of understanding between the east and the west can only be built if some of islam s theological concepts such as the place of reason in islam are reinterpreted by considering the islamic perspectives while the book acknowledges previous work on islamophobia it contributes to a deeper understanding of islamophobia in its internal and external manifestations by considering the theoretical frameworks of racism and xenophobia readers interested in islamic studies and anti racism narratives would find this book s eclectic approach and balanced perspective of the phenomenon informative and enlightening a quite afternoon a cozy chair a warm cup of coffee and a good book these are the perfect description of moments that should be cherished in this short life carl sagan once said that reading is magical that it enables humans from different epoch to talk to each other it is more than that reading is a gateway to imagination a world without limit a safe space to escape from enduring reality sometimes it is a space where you socialize without having to meet people this book is a compilation of book reviews written over the years the book was broken into two parts the first part is the long reviews the second part is the short reviews which covered a wide range of genre from economics self help novels comic book to political philosophy and parenting research paper postgraduate from the year 2011 in the subject cultural studies european studies language english abstract the presence of muslim communities in europe dates back to the turn of the twentieth century when such immigrants began arriving from european empires united kingdom has traditionally welcomed immigrants but just as elsewhere their integration was seen through specific prisms a community that insists on a primarily spiritually derived identity creates some issues that require adaptation the study examines the discourse on the crusades from across the muslim world it also shows how islamists shape the belief that the west has been waging a centuries old crusade against islam and how the modern islamist narrative of the crusades wrapped around contemporary events in iraq lebanon and palestine has gained ground in the battle for hearts and memories in the muslim world from the introduction the purpose of this human rights education model is to facilitate transmission of the universal human rights concepts inscribed in the major international documents to grassroots populations in muslim societies because the prevailing economic social cultural and political conditions affect the transmission process the sisterhood is global institute sigi aspires to offer a multidimensional model although no model can reasonably be expected to accommodate all the problems that occur in real situations the model purports to develop a framework that grassroots populations can easily use to convey universal concepts in association with indigenous ideas traditions myths and texts rendered in local idiom page ii the war of ideas is being fought both within islamic societies and between some muslim voices and the west the war of ideas is a struggle between moral claims political philosophies and historical interpretations that compete for assent within a society and across borders like the ideological component of the cold war the war of ideas is about the fundamental principles of human society from the basis for law and structures of governance to gender relations and the nexus of religion and politics it is a global war the foes have resorted to arms to protect and promote their worldview this book brings together some of the most important voices from different partisan theoretical and religious perspectives to argue and forecast the next phase in the war of ideas
