australia s economy has long been typified by neo liberal governance foreign investment dependence exports dominated by grains resources and energy and an industrial structure in which foreign multinational enterprises play the leading role these factors have not always contributed to stable growth and a strong manufacturing sector further they have not always led to the best outcomes for australia in its integration into the regional and global patterns these themes form the focus of this book which presents an analysis of australia s economic orthodoxy and its effects series global cultural and economic research vol 10 investigating the role of irregular migrants in the transformation of citizenship the author argues that irregular status is an immanent rather than aberrant condition of global capitalism formed by the fast tracked processes of globalization includes annual list of doctoral dissertations in political economy in progress in american universities and colleges and the hand book of the american economic association this book examines how states justify the creation of physical policy and legislative barriers of entry for migrants by drawing on a concept of sovereignty the movement of people across the world in search of refuge from persecution war and poverty is accelerating and as states confronted with this movement create physical policy and legislative barriers to entry they justify this exclusion by drawing on concepts of sovereignty this book interrogates that justification in an historical and theoretical context using the case study of australian law and policy since 1900 as well as instances from other western countries that have routinely copied from australia but just as australian migration policies are being replicated in the us britain and europe so this book argues is their employment of an anachronistic concept of sovereignty one that is reasserted precisely because of its waning power in the face of globalisation this book will be an important resource for law and political science scholars researchers and students in the fields of migration and refugee law and policy as well as to professional policy makers government institutions lawyers and international agencies with a particular focus on those fields

this textbook serves as a self contained course on income distribution and poverty with additional emphasis on issues of discrimination sections of the book revisit microeconomics and basic statistics historical trends in economic inequality are covered as well as the role of government policy and other factors on inequality movements
