at the start of the 21st century we are now well on the way towards a knowledge intensive society in which knowledge plays ever more important roles thus research interest should inevitably shift from information to knowledge with the problems of building organizing maintaining and utilizing knowledge coming central issues in a wide variety of fields the 21st century coe program framework for systematization and application of large scale knowledge sources coe lkr conducted by the tokyo institute of technology is one of several early attempts worldwide to address these important issues inspired by this project lkr2008 aimed at bringing together diverse contributions in cognitive science computer science education and linguistics to explore design construction extension maintenance validation and application of knowledge responding to our call for papers were received 38 submissions from a variety of research areas each paper was reviewed by three program committee members since we were aiming at an interdisciplinary conference covering a wide range of topics concerning large scale knowledge resources 14 papers were assigned a reviewer from a topic area outside the main thrust of the paper this reviewer was asked to assess whether the authors described the motivation and importance of their work in a comprehensible manner even for readers in other research areas following a rigorous reviewing process we accepted 14 regular papers and 12 poster papers the messianic line a succinct summary of the book the purpose of this book is twofold its purview is god's promise to abraham regarding his seeds and to david regarding his davidic messianic patrilineal that is male only divine line which was eventually fulfilled through the birth of the son of god the messiah jesus secondly it attempts to answer the question that results from the differences between the two genealogies in the gospels of matthew 1 1 16 and luke 3 23 38 in order to achieve this mundane but profound objective we must start with the story of the first couple adam and eve who lived in the garden of eden then we proceed to god's call for abraham instructing him to move from haran to canaan unto a land that i will shew thee with a promise to give him a great name to make him a blessing to bless those who bless him and curse those who cursed him and finally to give him the promised land and through his descendants to bless all the families of the earth with a redeemer gen 12 1 9 gen 13 14 17 gen 15 7 18 gen 17 5 8 we will subsequently take a cursory look at abraham and his descendants lineage with a return to adam and eve we will trace the lineage of their son seth directly to abraham given the number of persons involved from adam to the fulfillment of the two promises i can only make short and brief references to the quality of the character shortcomings and obedience to divine commandments in the sight of god of the people considered significant and god's choices for the lineage of his son jesus christ in pursuit of uniformity and ease of reading i've adopted matthew's descending order format to present the lineage in both gospels in fairness to luke who presents it in ascending order i also adopted his genealogy format from adam the first earthly man gen 1 26 to jesus the heavenly spiritual man luke 1 26 38 cf luke 1 18 20 23 in addition i accept luke's coverage of the complete history of god's redemption beginning with adam and eve not abraham for the following reasons god first showed the path to salvation for a fallen mankind through the promise of the seed of the woman i will put enmity between thee and the woman and between thy seed and her seed it shall bruise thy head and thou shalt bruise his heel gen 3 15 the words her seed refer to jesus christ who would be conceived through mary by the power of the holy spirit matt 1 18 christ came through virgin mary as a seed of woman and not of man therefore the lord himself shall give you a sign behold a virgin shall conceive and bear a son and shall call his name immanuel isa 7 14 cf luke 1 30 35 the promise of the woman s seed was expanded to the covenant with noah gen 6 18 9 8 17 and with abraham gen 12 1 3 22 15 18 it then developed into the sinaitic covenant a conditional covenant of works written on a stone given to mooses on mount sinai ex 24 1 8 deut 29 1 whereby god promised to forgive their iniquity ex 34 6 7 and finally to the davidic covenant unconditional covenant of grace based on the atoning works of jesus christ where god declared but this shall be the covenant that i will make with the house of israel i will put my law in their inward parts and write it in their hearts and will be their god and they shall be my people and they shall teach no more every man his neighbour and every man his brother saying know the lord for they shall all know me for i will forgive their iniquity and i will remember their sin no more jer 31 31 34 2 sam 7 11 16 1 chr 17 10 14 the important features of the universality of the knowledge of god vital inwardness of his laws and the fact that i will remember their sin no more that is the full guarantee of forgiveness of sin are what make the new covenant unique and superior to the sinaitic one all of the above covenants are eternal they became promises god promised a seed this promise was fulfilled in jesus christ and it was contained in the covenant ratified by god gal 3 16 17 from the foundation of the world god had a plan for man s redemption through his only begotten son jesus christ he manifested this divine plan in sanctified1 human genealogy of a chosen to them who are the called according to his purpose he did foreknow he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his son that he might be the firstborn among many brethren whom he did predestinate them he also called and whom he called them he also justified and whom he justified them he also glorified rom 8 28 30 until when the fulness of the time was come god sent forth his son made of a woman made under the law that we might receive the adoption of sons gal 4 4 5 sanctified set apart declare holy or separate for god s purposes disasters both natural and man made are on the rise indeed a catastrophe of one sort or another seems always to be unfolding somewhere on the planet we have entered into a veritable age of catastrophes which have grown both larger and more complex and now routinely very widespread in scope the old days of the geographically isolated industrial accidents of the sinking of a titanic or the explosion of a hindenburch together with their isolated causes and limited effects are over now disasters on the scale of hurricane katrina the bp oil spill or the japan tsunami and nuclear reactor accident threaten to engulf large swaths of civilization this book analyzes the efforts of westerners to keep the catastrophes outside while maintaining order on the inside of society these efforts are breaking down nature and civilization have become so intertwined they can no longer be separated natural disasters moreover are becoming increasingly more difficult to differentiate from man made instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

countries all over the world make decisions of national and international importance in a national parliament today for a country to have a national parliament is a global norm but this has only been the case for the last few hundred years the development of this remarkable uniformity has seen national parliaments become a global institution national parliaments as a global institution scrutinizes how the current world order comprising national legislatures evolved how parliaments work and how they form a global network or field for the transfer of ideas and information it highlights the remarkably similar structures and practices of national parliaments all around the world with even the opening words of a session replicating those of other parliaments and the four sacred principles that define national parliaments as an institution national sovereignty parliamentary immunity the national interest or common good and the sanctity of fellow parliamentarians by considering national parliaments as a global institution pertti alasuutari explores how legislatures symbolize sanctify and naturalize the nation state as the component part of world society
