contemporary earth and animal activists rarely collaborate perhaps because environmentalists focus on species and ecosystems while animal advocates look to the individual and neither seems to have much respect for the other this diverse collection of essays highlights common ground between earth and animal advocates most notably the protection of wildlife and personal dietary choice if earth and animal advocates move beyond philosophical differences and resultant divergent priorities turning attention to shared goals both will be more effective and both animals and the environment will benefit given the undeniable seriousness of the environmental problems that we face including climate change and species extinction it is essential that activists join forces drawing on a wide range of issues and disciplines ranging from wildlife management hunting and the work of ngos to ethics ecofeminism religion and animal welfare this volume provides a stimulating collection of ideas and challenges for anyone else who cares about the environment or animals this handbook provides the first in depth analysis of non violent extremism across different ideologies and geographic centres a topic overshadowed until now by the political and academic focus on violent and jihadi extremism in the global north whilst acknowledging the potentiality of non violent extremism as a precursor to terrorism this handbook argues that non violent extremism ought to be considered a stand alone area of study focusing on islamist buddhist hindu far right far left environmentalist and feminist manifestations the handbook discusses the ideological foundation of their war on ideas against the prevailing socio political and cultural systems in which they operate and provides an empirical examination of their main claims and perspectives this is supplemented by a truly global overview of non violent extremist groups not only in europe and the united states but also in africa asia oceania and the middle east the handbook thus answers a call to decolonise knowledge that is especially prescient given both the complicity of non violent extremists with authoritarian states and the dynamic of oppression towards more progressive groups in the global south the handbook will appeal to those studying extremism radicalisation and terrorism it intersects several relevant disciplines including social movement studies political science criminology islamic studies and anthropology
