the 125 year history of appalachian state university rests on the ambitious yet selfless dream of empowering impoverished mountain families through education dauphin disco dougherty his wife lillie shall dougherty and his bachelor brother blanford barnard dougherty founded a small semi private high school in 1899 at great personal cost and would only be able to sustain its growth to a state teacher s college through their fortitude of character and commitment drawing extensively on primary sources some of which have appeared in no previous book this history presents the first 30 years of the university s life and background with over 100 historic images and dozens of first hand accounts and interviews the text uncovers forgotten foundations and fascinating personal details of the school's founders bringing the first 30 years of app state to life appalachian state university a comprehensive regional university that boasts over 17 000 students had its humble beginnings as watauga academy in 1899 blanford barnard b b dougherty and his brother dauphin d d established the school for mountain children in the western north carolina town of boone located in what was considered the lost provinces the small school provided a much needed education for the then economically depressed population b b dougherty who remained president of the school for 56 years envisioned an institution that would eventually serve not only the region but the state today the school's reach extends well beyond north carolina borders attracting students and faculty from throughout the southeast and the rest of the country this book documents the visual history of appalachian state focusing on its transformation from a local academy to state supported teacher training school then a normal school and a four year teacher's college and finally a top ranked university each of these transformations is illustrated in its own chapter with images of campus buildings events faculty staff and students
