this book uncovers how power operates around the world and how it can be resisted or transformed through empowered collective action and social leadership the stakes have never been higher recent years have seen a rapid escalation of inequalities the rise of new global powers and corporate interests increasing impunity of human rights violations suppression of civil society and a re shaping of democratic processes by post truth populist and nationalist politics rather than looking at power through the lenses of agency or structure alone this book views power and empowerment as complex and multidimensional societal processes defined by pervasive social norms conditions constraints and opportunities bridging theory and practice the book explores real world applications using a selection of frameworks tools case studies examples resources and reflections from experience to support actors to analyse their positioning and align themselves with progressive social forces compiled with social change practitioners students and scholars in mind power empowerment and social change is the perfect volume for anyone involved in politics international development sociology human rights and environmental justice who is looking for fresh insights for transforming power in favour of relatively less powerful people most books about power only deal with the societal formula of the few having power over the enormously larger powerless masses and which is mistaken as the so called natural order of power but it is not well understood that this formula also requires social conditioning measures aimed at perpetuating the continuing depowerment of the powerless so that the powerful can have power over them this in turn requires the societal suppression and secretizing of all knowledge about the superlative human powers known to exist in individuals of the human species but which are socially forced into latency in most it is broadly understood that power and secrecy go together but the scope of the web of secrets surrounding the larger nature of human power s is surprising as discussed in this volume i of secrets of power empowerment is difficult if the larger panorama of societal power and depowerment are not more full understood community power and empowerment synthesizes research and practice on the topics of community power and empowerment and by doing so address key questions in the practice community psychology and related fields the first section of the book will provide foundational information on community power and empowerment the second roles played by human development and organizational development in social change and how empowerment relates to health the book guides readers in designing empowering practices and interventions as well as programs of research and evaluation reflecting the increased attention to gender and women in the field of employment relations there is now a growing international literature on women and trade unions the interest in women as trade unionists arises partly from the fact that women comprise 40 percent of trade union membership in the usa and over 50 percent in the uk further despite considerable overall union membership decline in both the uk and usa more women than men are joining unions in both countries recognition of the importance of women to the survival and revival of trade union movements has in many cases produced an unprecedented commitment to equality and inclusion at the highest level yet the challenge is to ensure that this commitment is translated to action and improves the experience of women in their union and in their workplace gender and leadership in trade unions explores and evaluates the similarities and differences in equality strategies pursued by unions in the us and the uk it assesses the conditions experienced by women union members and how these impact on their leadership both potential and actual women have made gains in both countries within union leadership and decision making structures however climbing the ladder to leadership positions remains far from a smooth process in the trade union context women face multiple barriers that resonate with the barriers facing aspiring women leaders in other organizational contexts including the gendered division
