understand the history core values and divisions as they've developed within the evangelical christian movement four views on the spectrum of evangelicalism compares and contrasts four distinct positions on the current fundamentalist evangelical spectrum each contributor offers their case for one of four primary views fundamentalism defended by kevin t bauder conservative confessional evangelicalism defended by r albert mohler jr generic evangelicalism defended by john g stackhouse jr postconservative evangelicalism defended by roger e olson each author explains and defends his position which is critiqued by the other three authors the counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion steve wilkens edits a debate between three different understandings of the relationship between faith and reason between theology and philosophy the three views include faith and philosophy in tension faith seeking understanding and the thomistic synthesis this introduction to a timeless quandary is an essential resource for students when people of different cultures and religious traditions are being constantly drawn closer together interreligious dialogue becomes not only a strategy to understand the others but also an attitude to deepen one s faith christian faith acknowledges other religious traditions as genuine ways and channels of salvation for their adherents and that religions have a place in god s universal plan of salvation for humankind the plausibility of this assertion can be exemplified by the concept of inclusive pluralism a theological model developed by the belgian born jesuit theologian jacques dupuis this book expounds that concept and reflects on its implication for the catholic church s unwavering commitment to interreligious dialogue incommensurability is the impossibility to determine how two options relate to each other in terms of conventional comparative relations this book features new research on incommensurability from philosophers who have shaped the field into what it is today including john broome ruth chang and wlodek rabinowicz the book covers four aspects relating to incommensurability in the first part the contributors synthesize research on the competing views of how to best explain incommensurability part ii illustrates how incommensurability can help us deal with seemingly insurmountable problems in ethical theory and population ethics the contributors address the repugnant conclusion the mere addition paradox and so called spectrum arguments the chapters in part iii outline and summarize problems caused by incommensurability for decision theory finally part iv tackles topics related to risk uncertainty and incommensurability value incommensurability ethics risk and decision making will be of interest to researchers and advanced students working in ethical theory decision theory action theory and philosophy of economics between horror and hope is a study of paul s metaphorical language of death in romans 6 1 11 the scholarly debate focuses on two main issues the origin of the commentatio mortis tradition and its development dr sabou argues that the origin of this terminology is original to paul that it was the apostle s own insight into the meaning of christ's death a death to sin and his understanding of the identity of christ in his death as the anointed davidic king which guided him to create this metaphor of dying to sin as a way of describing the relationship of the believer with sin on the development of this language of death the author argues that this language conveys two aspects horror and hope the first is discussed in the context of crucifixion in which paul explains the believer's death to sin by presenting christ's death as the death of the anointed davidic king who won the victory over sin and death by rising from the dead paul affirms that believers are coalesced with what was proclaimed about christ's death and resurrection thereby allowing him to assert that the releasing of the body from the power of sin is a result of crucifixion this crucifixion is the condemnation inflicted on our past lives in the age inaugurated by adam's sin and this is such a horrible event that believers have to stay away from sin since sin leads to such punishment in contrast hope is presented in the context of burial the believers burial with christ points to the fact that they are part of christ's family and this is accomplished by the overwhelming action of god by which he pushes us toward the event of christ's death an act pictured in baptism it is this burial with christ that allows believers to share with christ in newness of life this is volume 3 2013 of Interpreter: A Journal of Mormon Scripture by the Interpreter Foundation it contains articles on diverse topics such as the relationship between faith and reason a book review of comparing and evaluating the scriptures a timely challenge for jews christians muslims and mormons the biblical and non biblical quotes from paul a book review of four views on the spectrum of evangelicalism an analysis of the parallel narratives of amon1 and amon2 a book review of forgery and counterforgery the use of literary deceit in early christian polemics an analysis of directions in the book of mormon nephite insights into israelite worship a book review of brigham young pioneer prophet and a possible explanation for one day to a cubit as found in facsimile 2 of the book of abraham
