missionaries must know god be able to relate well to other people understand and engage with another culture and be able to use the bible in a way that informs all aspects of their lives and ministries missionary training must address each of these areas if it is to help christians to be effective in taking the gospel to the ends of the earth effective training has been shown to prevent people from prematurely leaving the field it also reduces the danger of cross cultural workers uncritically exporting culturally bound forms of christianity this book details four key areas that every missionary training program whatever its context must focus on developing it shows how these can be holistically addressed in a learning community where trainers and trainees engage in cross cultural ministry together god has given each and every one of us one or more gifts god has also called all men to come to him through his son jesus christ and there are those who have responded to the general call to his household who have special callings of god on their lives and the word says as each one has received a gift minister it to one another as good stewards of the manifold grace of god if anyone speaks let him speak as the oracles of god if anyone ministers let him do it with the ability which god supplies that in all things god may be glorified through jesus christ to whom belong the glory and the dominion forever and ever amen 1 pet 4 10 11
