an absolute treat szerb is a master novelist a comedian whose powers transcend time and language nicholas lezard guardian at an end of season london soirée a young hungarian scholar dr jános bátky is introduced to the earl of gwynedd a reclusive eccentric who is the subject of strange rumours invited to the family seat pendragon castle in north wales bátky receives a mysterious phone call warning him not to go once there nothing is quite as it seems antal szerb s first novel is a gently satirical blend of gothic and romantic genres crossed with a murder mystery to produce a fast moving and often hilarious romp but beneath the surface Szerb's steely intelligence poses disturbingly modern questions about the nature of self and reality an NYRB Classics original the trouble begins in Venice the first stop on Erzsi and Mihály's honeymoon tour of Italy here Erzsi discovers that her new husband prefers wandering back alleys on his own to her company the trouble picks up in Ravenna where a hostile man zooms up on a motorcycle as the couple are sitting at an outdoor café it's János someone Mihály hasn't seen for years and he wants Mihály to come with him in search of Ervin their childhood friend the trouble comes to a head when Mihály misses the train he and Erzsi are due to take to Rome off he goes across Italy wandering from city to city haunted and accosted by a strange array of figures from the troubled youth that he thought he had left behind there are the charismatic siblings Éva and Tamás whose bizarre amateur theatricals linked sex and death forever in his mind Ervin a Jew turned Catholic monk who was his rival for Éva's love and again that ruffian on the motorcycle Antal Szerb's dreamlike adventure like Bulgakov's The Master and Margarita is an intoxicating utterly individual mix of magic madness eros and menace in the words of the critic Nicholas Lezard no one who has read it has failed to love it

In August 1936 a Hungarian writer in his mid thirties arrives by train in Venice on a journey overshadowed by the coming war and charged with intense personal nostalgia aware that he might never again visit this land whose sites and scenes had once exercised a strange and terrifying power over his imagination he immerses himself in a stream of discoveries reappraisals and inevitable self revelations from Venice he traces the route taken by the Germanic invaders of old down to Ravenna to stand fulfilling a lifelong dream before the sacred mosaics of San Vitale this journey into his private past brings Antal Szerb firmly and at times painfully up against an explosive present producing some memorable observations on the social wonders and existential horrors of Mussolini's new Roman Imperium Antal Szerb was born in Budapest in 1901 best known in the West as a novelist and short story writer he was also a prolific scholar whose interests ranged widely across the whole field of European literature debarred from a university post by reason of his Jewish ancestry he taught in a commercial secondary school until increasing persecution led to his brutal death in a labour camp in 1945 yet the tone of his writing is almost always deceptively light the fierce intelligence softened by a gentle tolerance wry humour and understated irony Pushkin Press's publications of Szerb's work include his novels Journey by Moonlight Oliver VII and The Pendragon Legend as well as the short story collection Love in a Bottle and the history The Queen's Necklace
