this is a story of a girl's construction of her identity and of her family's search for a place in the world for the Heimat that is so resonant for those of German background. We follow Helga through an adventurous childhood in Iran whose vast open spaces her mother called my spiritual home. Her engineer father worked on a grand scale designing and laying roads and railways and tunnelling through mountain ranges. Then came the invasions of World War II and the family, half German half Austrian, found themselves on a long voyage to Australia. Designated enemy aliens they were interned for nearly five years in the dusty Victorian countryside. On their release at the end of the war, stranded in Melbourne, they sought another home. The children were dispatched to convents and at the Academy of Mary Immaculate Helga found a temporary homeland. In faith, everyday life in the Australia of the late 1940s and early 1950s is freshly seen by this feisty loving migrant family. Through their eyes we encounter a strange place, Australia, as if for the first time. Helga's development from a thoughtful sensitive child to a self-possessed young woman wrestling with her faith and with how to live a decent life is vividly recounted.

a sweeping, nicely written, briskly paced, accessible history of women in the West. Home Lands is guaranteed to draw readers into its narrative. Ramón Gutiérrez, author of When Jesus Came, the Corn Mothers Went Away: Marriage, Sexuality, and Power in New Mexico, 1500-1846, changes the vantage point and a place changes. Things appear in one view that are hidden in another. This book's vantage point is home and from it the West does look different. Richard White, author of It's Your Misfortune and None of My Own: A New History of the American West.
