this edited volume explores canada s foreign policy relationship with the palestinians and broader middle east peace process mepp canada was intensively involved from 1992 to 2000 in peacebuilding as a mediator in the multilateral part of the mepp as chair of the refugee working group and sponsor of track ii negotiations this all changed after a significant mid 2000s discursive and policy shift when canada withdrew from the politics of israel palestine peacebuilding and took a strong partisan stance in favour of israel through 10 chapters by current and former government insiders and academics with extensive field experience this unique edited volume offers insight into decades of evolution in canadian policy toward the palestinians mepp and the middle east it arrives at an important time when the international community is reconsidering how it views
