the year of 1832 marked a turning point in France as the country struggled to find its way in the wake of the French Revolution following the revolution of 1830 legitimists supporters of the recently ousted Bourbon dynasty's claim to the throne continued to plot against King Louis Philippe and his July Monarchy in early 1832 after failing to launch a coup in southern France legitimists plotted an unsuccessful uprising in the Vendée a region in western France that had supported the royalist cause during the French Revolution the Duchesse de Berry led the rebellion in the hopes of placing her son the Bourbon heir on the French throne the revolt marked the last attempt by the Bourbons to retake the throne by force and helped solidify the end of the Bourbon dynasty during the cholera outbreak which also spread throughout France in 1832 lower income areas suffered higher losses to the disease for they were more likely to have contaminated water supplies the lower classes spread rumors that the outbreak was an elitist plot to subdue the masses and the epidemic exacerbated class tensions meanwhile conditions in France continued to be characterized by violence during the early 1830s as Louis Philippe attempted to establish his regime's authority the most significant of these uprisings was the republican dominated June Revolution of 1832 Victor Hugo and other contemporaries perceived the barricades of June as natural extensions of the cholera epidemic or the political continuation of a biological crisis the sad fate of the uprising however prompted republicans to regroup and develop new strategies for success as a whole then 1832 helped solidify the end of the Bourbon monarchy and class identities and was a crucial moment in the reorganization and growing solidification of French republicanism that paved the way for the revolution of 1848 this edited collection examines these three pivotal events in French history in 1832 a royal legitimist uprising led by the Duchesse de Berry the cholera epidemic and the June Revolution featured in the climax of Hugo's novel Les Misérables within the context of the legacy of the French Revolution while the events of 1832 are significant they have been relatively ignored because scholars have been distracted by the revolutions of 1830 and 1848 this collection is the first piece of scholarship to examine these three events in an interconnected pattern to better examine France as it transitioned from a monarchy to a republic as a result this collection will be of value to both historians and academics studying diverse subfields within French and European studies

foreword ten years is a long time in 2009 a bunch of friends gathered in Portugal for a conference that was to precede take in 2011 we repeated then after a strange sequence of events we finally organized take for the first time in 2015 in Aveiro followed by Zagreb Poznań and now Vienna Florian Kragulj was in the first take in Aveiro and from the start showed the highest level of enthusiasm and professionalism in the event these characteristics were kept alive during all the 15 or so months during which we organized take 2019 that this edition of take involves several entities linked with academia i.e. WU Vienna University of Economics and Business the Austrian Economic Chamber and the Institute for Applied Research on Skilled Crafts and Trades IAGF this in itself a big success and a sign of the conference improvement also we may see by analysing the papers and in particular the streams that take has been following the economic times and this year we have several papers on the gig economy only good conferences adjust the others get stuck in time and success in conferences is about teams and in take that team is indeed a very large group of people including the co-chairs the local organizing team the material organizers book of abstracts and proceedings the stream leaders and the paper reviewers without all these persons nothing could have been done and finally we had to depend on the authors and their willingness to work with us without the work of these large dozens of devoted and skilled people take 2019 would not have existed may I also mention that this time and with Florian's impulse and skill the organization of take was improved in technological terms in short we became techno we used a website to deliver the mail list a website to receive the scientific material and another website to receive the fees all these were investments that eventually paid off and that will guarantee a more stable organization for take in the future and we owe it to Florian however as the human resource development part of take and more than anyone Gary McLean would remind us we are humans Eduardo and technology helps but in the end is attention to detail capacity to deal with the bizarre and to accommodate the weirdness making sometimes the impossible possible that differentiates a good conference made doing things right from an excellent conference based in doing the right things and on this last matter believe me we in take are among the best in the world because apart from being outstanding scholars and good colleagues we are an amazing group of friends and friendship is the best way to turn good conferences into outstanding ones many thanks from the heart and enjoy the conference eduardo tomé conference chair universidade europeia lisbon july 2019 lisbon portugal
