as a poet kamala das merits a place among the best women poets of the twentieth century she has made enormous contribution to indian poetry in english by adding a feminist dimension to it although she is not inclined to admit it perhaps deriving her inspiration from her matrilineal background she celebrates woman s body and pleads for its integrity in her poems she writes poetry as only as woman can write and takes pride in the fact of being a woman and that is certainly the starting point of all kinds of feminism the present volume puts together deeply perceptive articles which study various facets of her poetry from feminist and other perspectives and often with reference to her life a confessional poet that she is

this book aims at study and analysis of the poetry of the first four major poets of the postcolonial trend in the indian context it examines and explores the various aspects and characteristics of their poetry which can qualify them on the double standards of both being indian and modern at the same time in a justifiable manner

n v raveendran has used stylistics here as a means of exploring and explaining the poetics of sensuality thereby bridging the gap between language and linguistics on the one hand and poetry and stylistics on the other he thus bypasses the usual charge against linguistic stylistics that it puts the cart before the horse and uses language features only to validate and valorize perceptions based on immediate personal responses this attempt is bound to be of value to scholars as well as students of poetry of indian english poetry in particular dr k ayyappa panicker
