the sovereignty of god is a doctrine that has been debated by christians for centuries for some this remains a passionate topic creating different camps among christians endlessly arguing about whether god s sovereignty and human free will can co exist for the majority the doctrine is a vague concept that remains to be explored this book deals with these issues by examining what the bible says about god s sovereignty and human responsibility it explores the sovereignty of god by looking at god as the creator saviour shepherd and judge and tackles questions that commonly emerge if we believe that god is truly sovereign then we must live out the implications by living faithfully and responsibly by trusting and obeying him amid the challenges of life praying to him sharing about him with others and serving and hoping in him our relationship with him is an important way to understand how his grace purpose and power invite us to respond responsibly to him in active discipleship an introduction to the theology of wolfgang pannenberg pannenberg's extensive works especially his recently published systematic theology are increasingly regarded as of major importance professor mostert here provides not only a general introduction to pannenberg's theology and many keys to enable the serious reader of theology to access pannenberg's individual works but also sets pannenberg's complex thought in the broadest context of contemporary philosophical and theological thought the popular belief that a scientific understanding of reality is incompatible with a christian one is simply wrong some christian understandings of reality do conflict with some scientific understandings but a thoroughly rational christian understanding of the origin and history of the universe will be informed by the best scientific theories and the facts founded on them this book weaves a narrative of the origin and history of the universe from the perspective of contemporary science with a christian understanding of god and of god's role in the origin and history of the universe at the center of this integrated narrative is the view that god who is pure unbounded love is creator the zest for life in the universe comes from god and god is the source of truth beauty and goodness in the universe god is amazed and delighted at what god and the world has created god is saddened by ways creatures have fallen short of pure unbounded love truth beauty and goodness jarvis streeter's posthumous book is unbelievably good describing the history of the universe from a theistic perspective this book discusses with accuracy everything that one would need to know to take on such an enormous task equally well informed and in my view sound are streeter's judgments about theism and its relation to science as a bonus the book is beautifully written david ray griffin author of god exists although god does not from evil to fine tuning 2016 postmodernity denies any possibility of a grand narrative that judgment is premised on the cognitive and spiritual experience of fracture including the purported fracture between scientific and religious understandings of reality jarvis streeter's god and the history of the universe is a grand narrative it enters into both nature and fracture to discover a deeper invitation to peace streeter's gift hereby is a scientifically factual and deeply felt testimony to love's liveliness and unity throughout the universe duane h larson coauthor of moral injury caring for the suffering soul forthcoming wipf and stock past president and associate professor of systematic theology wartburg theological seminary jarvis streeter professor of religion at california lutheran university from 1988 to 2013 received awards for his teaching in 1991 and 2004 and a posthumous honorary alumnus of the year award he is the author of human nature human evil and religion 2009 streeter completed his work on this book by mid 2013 six months before his death from pancreatic cancer david j lull editor professor emeritus of new testament at wartburg theological seminary is the author of the spirit in galatia wipf stock 2006 and coauthor of biblical preaching on the death of jesus wipf stock 2007 he has also written 1 corinthians 2007 and romans 2005

the eternal god has created the universe and that universe is time bound how can we best understand god's relationship with our time bound universe for example does god experience each moment of time in succession or are all times present to god how we think of god and time has implications for our understanding of the nature of time the creation of the universe god s knowledge of the future god s interaction with his creation and the fullness of god s life in this spectrum multiview volume four notable philosophers skillfully take on this difficult topic all writing from within a christian framework yet contending for different views paul helm argues that divine eternity should be construed as a state of absolute timelessness alan g padgett maintains that god s eternity is more plausibly to be understood as relative timelessness william lane craig presents a hybrid view that combines timelessness with omnitemporality and nicholas wolterstorff advocates a doctrine of unqualified divine temporality each essay is followed by responses from the other three contributors and a final counter response from the original essayist making for a lively exchange of ideas editor gregory e ganssle provides a helpful introduction to the debate and its significance together these five scholars conduct readers on a stimulating and mind stretching journey into one of the most controversial and challenging areas of theology today spectrum multiview books offer a range of viewpoints on contested topics within christianity giving contributors the opportunity to present their position and also respond to others in this dynamic publishing format since the middle of the twentieth century writes elizabeth johnson there has been a renaissance of new insights into god in the christian tradition on different continents under pressure from historical events and social conditions people of faith have glimpsed the living god in fresh ways it is not that a wholly different god is discovered from the one believed in by previous generations christian faith does not believe in a new god but finding itself in new situations seeks the presence of god there aspects long forgotten are brought into new relationships with current events and the depths of divine compassion are appreciated in ways not previously imagined this book sets out the fruit of these discoveries the first chapter describes johnson s point of departure and the rules of engagement with each succeeding chapter distilling a discrete idea of god featured are transcendental political liberation feminist black hispanic interreligious and ecological theologies ending with the particular christian idea of the one god as trinity this book was inspired by god it brings god s activities on behalf of earth s citizens from the shadows of history into illumination god s mastery over the universe is brought to life from the big bang to modern times a plausible theory is put forth regarding how god has employed his tools only recently discovered but little understood by scientists dark matter and dark energy to create and sustain the universe as we know it god s book this book is a compliment to his bible from which it differs in that for today s intelligent humans it explains how god advanced creation and evolution after summarizing key portions of the bible this book focuses sequentially upon god s activities in roman times the dark ages medieval times renaissance times colonial times and the rise of the united states through the big wars up to modern times god led us through every period or we would not have reached these times as we are today god used the west to advance the entire planet as all earth was afforded the opportunity to know jesus christ god s unseen struggles are summarized in the final chapter but there are much more in depth presentations of god s tools dark matter and dark energy containing preliminary information on how to develop necessary communications to initiate their use by mankind to save earth god sees we are in imminent danger of flooding coastal areas worldwide because of the greenhouse gasses resulting from long over use of fossil fuels and subsequent melting of glaciers and icecaps the author posits that by leading us through the millennia to our current level of understanding and through this very book god has prepared us to partner with him to save our civilization from devastation the gospel coalition 2022 book award winner academic theology southwestern journal of theology 2022 book award honorable mention hermeneutics bible reference biblical backgrounds two experts in exegesis and dogmatics show how christology and the doctrine of the trinity are grounded in scripture and how knowledge of these topics is critical for exegesis the book outlines key theological principles and rules for the exegesis of christian scripture making it an ideal textbook for hermeneutics and interpretation courses the authors explore how the triune god revealed in christ shapes scripture and its readers and how doctrinal rules intrinsic to scripture help guide exegesis

this book is about the religions of the world today and how they compare to christianity it further discusses how the holy bible describes the principles of christian faith and the benefits of living a christian life the book was written for the benefit of non believers and for people that say they are christians but really don t know or follow god or jesus christ it discusses questions many people have about christianity such as if god is the loving and just god christians claim he is why is there so much pain and suffering in the world if a non believer dies and they are known to be a good person are they going to hell is there a spirit and soul in each of us and does it survive our death on this earth what happens after we die does the devil exist and if so why and what are his powers does hell exist and why would a living god send anyone there for eternity does heaven exist and how can we get there these and many other topics are discussed if you have asked any of these questions or are curious perhaps this book can provide some insights to consider
