IV BEST PRACTICES COMMON PITFALLS TO AVOID

A BEST PRACTICES

- Prioritize age appropriateness Select books suitable for your childs reading level and maturity
- Encourage independent choice Allow your child some input in selecting the next book This increases engagement and builds autonomy
- Provide a variety of genres Dont limit your child to one genre expose them to different styles and themes
- Make it a shared experience Read aloud together discuss the story and encourage your child to express their thoughts and feelings

B COMMON PITFALLS

- Ignoring reading level Selecting books that are too difficult can frustrate your child and discourage reading
- Overlooking interests Choosing books based solely on your own preferences might not resonate with your child
- Focusing solely on popularity Bestseller lists dont always reflect quality or appropriateness
- Neglecting reviews and age recommendations This can lead to unsuitable content or reading challenges
