this publication describes a small international initiative to examine how local communities can undertake the above tasks of democratization with specific reference to the voluntary guidelines for securing sustainable small scale fisheries in the context of food security and poverty eradication communities may have been active participants in proposing inputs which were aggregated and shared in the formulation of the guidelines yet their role in monitoring and evaluating the implementation of the adopted texts is peripheral at best they watch implementation undertaken in their name but as passive observers a radical change is needed in order to mainstream community participation into the implementation and monitoring of guidelines of the type described above there is a need to take back voluntary guidelines to the community demystify their contents assess with the community what indicators will be utilized to evaluate the progress of implementation and think through with them the nature of tools to be used for this purpose basically the call is for a democratization of the implementation and monitoring of voluntary guidelines making them by for and of the community this book deals with applications of game theory in a wide variety of disciplines

this document includes eight studies showcasing good practices in support of sustainable small scale fisheries fao commissioned these studies aiming to share experiences and promote the implementation of the voluntary guidelines for securing sustainable small scale fisheries in the context of food security and poverty eradication ssf guidelines the case studies were also intended to promote participatory approaches in line with the ssf guidelines principles and to promote increased interaction between research and fishing communities including the use of traditional knowledge and participatory research it is hoped that the case studies will inform policy and policy processes and in this way promote sustainable small scale fisheries according to the ssf guidelines and the human rights based approach to development hrba the case studies constitute a rich selection of experiences and are diverse not only with regard to their geographical setting but also in scope and approach they span from looking at one specific tool for sharing experiences the fisheries learning exchanges methodology in madagascar and mozambique or examining the enabling environment in a specific thematic area disaster risks in bangladesh to regional policy formulation on small scale fisheries the ssf guidelines protocol for caribbean policies and reflection on how to use the ssf guidelines in participatory processes the myanmar step by step approach to discussions with small scale fisheries communities a few of the papers look at co management in some cases combining fisheries management and social development senegal uruguay and nepal with one focusing on the role of small scale fisheries and community organizations india generally the case studies refer to hrba but perhaps because many of the activities have taken place in the past it seems that hrba has rarely been consciously and explicitly implemented still the case studies bear witness to a number of experiences and practices that are clearly steps in the right direction key good practices emerging from the studies refer to among other things holistic approaches to co management and social responsibility broad engagement inclusiveness and partnerships the power of communication and gender equality and the role of women as more experience is gained our knowledge of how to go about implementing the ssf guidelines will improve and nurture new and continued initiatives for the present and the future efforts should be made to apply hrba while continuing to share experiences and good practices showing how to do so when implementing the ssf guidelines in june 2014 fao member states endorsed the voluntary guidelines for securing sustainable small scale fisheries ssf guidelines these guidelines are one of the most significant landmarks for small scale fisheries around the world they are comprehensive in terms of topics covered and progressive with their foundations based on human rights and other key principles it can be anticipated that implementing the ssf guidelines whether at local national or regional levels will be challenging this book contains in depth case studies where authors discuss the extent to which the guidelines can help improve the realities of small scale fishing men and women globally and make their livelihoods and communities more secure this will require policy intervention and innovation along with contributions of civil society organizations and academia however most of all it will necessitate the empowerment of fishing people so that they can become active participants in decision making on matters where their well being and human rights are at stake by endorsing the ssf guidelines states have committed themselves to support and facilitate this development this book asks whether states can successfully walk the talk and provides advice as to how they can do so the collection of case studies sets the platform for an interactive dialogue space for researchers policy makers civil society and small scale fishing communities to start the conversation about the monitoring and evaluation of the implementation of the ssf guidelines at local national regional and global levels an added value is that it helps add focus to our work as civil society activists involved in ensuring the application of the ssf guidelines naseegh jaffer general secretary world forum of fisher people wffp this collection offers many ways in which institutions enabling small scale fisheries can protect and promote sustainability food security customary tenure self management and market access while fostering such benefits as ecosystem based management protected areas incorporation of local knowledge and poverty alleviation you will want to put this book in the hands of policy makers and practitioners immediately and for years to come evelyn pinkerton professor simon fraser university canada
