un ouvrage de synthèse sur la question chapitres sur les principales théories qui ont marqué le domaine réalisme libéralisme marxisme etc sur les acteurs majeurs que sont les États et les organisations internationales sur la politique étrangère des États décideurs facteurs de décision diplomatie et stratégie sur les relations économiques internationales et enfin sur le nouveau paysage qui se dégage en politique internationale dans le monde d après la chute du mur de berlin avec la montée de la mondialisation et des menaces terroristes sdm

ce manuel d introduction aux relations internationales se veut un ouvrage de synthèse qui entend faire le point en un nombre limité de pages sur les différentes dimensions de la discipline sont successivement abordés les grands domaines des relations internationales que sont les théories les acteurs le système international et la politique étrangère tout en présentant les auteurs incontournables anciens et actuels les rails saillants et les principales problématiques l ouvrage repose sur un double axe l irruption des sociétés et la prise en compte des mondes non occidentaux longtemps considéré comme acteur exclusif des relations internationales l etat voit son monopole remis en cause même s il convient de remarquer que son rôle demeure important sur la scène internationale l irruption des sociétés se vérifie à travers l influence croissante de nombre d acteurs non gouvernementaux dont la diversité est remarquable firmes transnationales organisations non gouvernementales individus mais aussi mafias terroristes mercenaires l analyse de la politique internationale passe dorénavant par la prise en compte de tous les acteurs et par l étude de leurs interactions l attention portée aux pays du sud repose autant sur elle que sur un constat les manuels de relations internationales leur accordent généralement une place marginale plus largement la discipline elle même reste profondément marquée par ses origines européenne et nord américaine a l évidence cette situation est appelée à changer il suffit de mesurer l espace dorénavant occupé par certaines puissances émergentes dans notre monde globalisé nul doute que cette prise en compte de nouveaux horizons invite à terme à une relecture des relations internationales
