and often tragic to watch how we can waste our lives for something outside of their intended purpose you and i were designed with a purpose our purpose is to reflect the image majesty wisdom and glory of the one who created us but many of our lives are not being invested in their intended purpose many of us have hijacked our purpose and live to reflect our own will desires and glory instead of his choices have been made to cause the reflection of our creator to become muddied and soiled in our lives even our attempts to make things right often seem to result in simply making things worse or leaving us feeling more empty the apostle paul is clear in his instructions to use that we are called to return to our created purpose and become imitators of our perfect god but who is this god that we are called to imitate and how is it possible for us to embrace our divine design the first step in a three part series on embracing the christ centered life god designed you to enjoy every emotion you and i can think of such as joy excitement sorrow fear anger and pleasure all have the element of the divine in them because god who is spirit has all these emotions as well our emotions are not only an important aspect of our soul but is also vital in our relationship with god the father the son and the holy spirit our emotions allow us to live life in abundance which christ jesus came to give us john 10 10 now for all of you who are thinking this guy is completely post modern and is all about feelings let me try to put your mind at ease i am not speaking of being overly emotional or basing truth on emotion but i am saying that we who are made in gods image will never enjoy the kind of communion god intends us to have with him unless our emotions are a part of that relationship with him our emotional and mental well being is vital to our relationship with jesus
