western culture has changed radically in the last fifty years death seems less dreadful sexuality less sacred and humanity less dignified reason has yielded to passion and science often to political bias philosophically and culturally the west has slowly moved from modernism to postmodernism it's not surprising that this shift has also radically affected the christian church the doctrinal confidence of the past 350 years has given way to greater levels of theological confusion but while the new era thrives on religious pluralism a refreshing desire has arisen among many christians to experience and share the unchanging good news of jesus more authentically accurately and passionately this book is written to help ordinary people understand the nature of the transition that has occurred and to inspire them to allow the gospel itself to shape life and church ministry in the midst
