though the global center of christianity has been shifting south and east over the past few decades very few theological resources have dealt with the seismic changes afoot the majority world theology series seeks to remedy that lack by gathering well regarded christian thinkers from around the world to discuss the significance of christian teaching in their respective contexts the contributors to this volume reflect deeply on the role of the holy spirit in both the church and the world in dialogue with their respective contexts and cultures taking african asian and latin american cultural contexts into account gives rise to fresh questions and insights regarding the spirit s work as witnessed in the world and demonstrates how the theological heritage of the west is not adequate alone to address the theological necessities of communities worldwide employs derrida s critique of hegel as the impetus for a new understanding of hegel s concept of spirit frank d macchia argues that the son of god baptized and continues to baptize humanity in the spirit by pouring forth the spirit on the day of pentecost all four gospels and the book of acts describe how the son is sent of the father and empowered by the spirit to fulfil this mission macchia in turn claims that christ succeeds by incorporating others into himself and into the love of the father the spirit baptized church proposes a richly pneumatological ecclesiology that is dominated by a pentecostal confessional concern while also open to a larger ecumenical conversation the volume focuses not only on the dogmatic trinitarian foundations and election processes of the spirit baptized church but also on its marks and witnessing practices as an exceptionally detailed study of the spirit baptismal metaphor this volume is a valuable resource for scholars of ecclesiology pentecostalism and systematic theology
