innovation theology a biblical inquiry and exploration invites seminary leaders to explore an uncharted territory theology for innovating this unexplored terrain of practical and applied theology holds gems of substantive and practical wisdom for innovating in the marketplace society and church innovation theology brings theological perspectives to the challenges of innovating and promises to transform how we make sense of change and where and why we choose to innovate innovation theology makes the case that god continues to create and continues to invite us through change to co create new value for others i e innovate innovation theology explores where discovery invention and value creation intersect or not with the intentions of god not to be confused with workplace spirituality business ethics or critiques of technology theology for innovating can encourage scientists engineers and entrepreneurs to aim their innovating toward the common good not just in response to the invisible hand of the market innovation theology invites us to make meaning before money aim for plumb lines before bottom lines and reattach extrinsic to intrinsic value the one for whom all things are possible is interested invested and engaged in innovating are we innovating with him or not

what does innovation have in common with theology more than you might think both are ways people attempt to make sense both have to do with value and knowledge creation both have much to say about change and how we respond to it or not and both affect human culture and physical realities with implications for generations to come a primer on innovation theology explores the territory where innovating and theology intersect at this intersection the primer pours a theological foundation for innovators who aim to create new value for the common good realize sustainable more than acquisitive value and pursue generous and just relationships more than merely transactional ones adapted from the larger original volume innovation theology a biblical inquiry and exploration a primer is intended for lay audiences especially innovators intrapreneurs entrepreneurs and investors who are theologically curious about their own roles and responsibilities change is unrelenting how we choose to respond can insulate or innovate if we choose to innovate our aim is to create new value for others the success and failure of these aims may reveal whether we are innovating where the plumb lines of god may be more important than the bottom lines of our efforts in other words in the company of god moving beyond conversionism many christians today are uncomfortable with older simpler notions about evangelism as conversionism but see as insufficient the more progressive model of evangelism as hospitality transcending that dichotomy richard osmer advances a theology of evangelism as a multifaceted act of invitation into christ following community osmer begins by exploring references to evangelism in the new testament both in the gospels and in the letters of paul he then enters into dialogue with karl barth to work through ideas of church witness and the relationship of evangelism to salvation finally with lucid explanations and illustrative case studies he offers guidance for pastors laity and students to use as they reimagine how evangelism might best happen in their churches and missional organizations osmer s approach mirrors the conviction stated in his introduction that our concept of evangelism must be formed and constantly reformed by keeping the bible church doctrine and practical theology in conversation foundational to osmer s rendering of evangelism as invitation is the essential truth that it is christ and the holy spirit who calls converts and makes disciples not christians thus we can invite our neighbors to the wedding feast while remaining reassured that the table is already set
