Systematic theology seeks to understand and render more intelligible the central doctrines of faith and to show how they are related to each other. It tries to demonstrate how these doctrines are rooted in Scripture and develop in the history of the church. Most important, it strives to more adequately express and sometimes reinterpret the church's doctrinal tradition always in the interest of better communicating the mystery of salvation and bringing it into a dialogue with culture. The present text is intended to be concise and accessible, an introduction that explores basic themes in Catholic systematic theology from a biblical, historical, and contemporary perspective, always aware of today's theological pluralism.

An outlined study of some of the major teachings of the Christian faith, coupled with charts and illustrations, this study covers the basic doctrines about the Bible itself, theology, Christology, soteriology, angels, and anthropology, ecclesiology, and eschatology.

Emphasizing the beliefs common to all branches of Christendom rather than the issues that divide, Thomas Oden brings the full weight of two millennia of discussion to bear on the ever-contemporary questions of Christian faith. His magisterial study not only treats the traditional elements of systematic theology, referencing hundreds of theologians, Protestant, Catholic, Orthodox, Charismatic, but also highlights the foundational exegeses of history, broadly ecumenical in the truest sense of the word, and written from the perspective of a theological liberal turned evangelical. Oden's direct, frank, and provocative approach articulates the concerns of a broad spectrum of Christians: pastors, teachers, seminarians, and thoughtful laity. Though comprehensive in scope, the set is arranged in a trinitarian fashion, with each volume focusing on one person of the Godhead. The first volume explores the Christian understanding of God, creation, and providence; the second volume discusses Christ and the incarnation; the third volume considers the presence of the Holy Spirit in history and his power in the lives and communities of present-day believers. Volume 1: The Living God, ISBN 9781598560374; Volume 2: The Word of Life, ISBN 9781598560381; Volume 3: Life in the Spirit, ISBN 9781598560398. These volumes may be purchased separately. Demonstrates a commitment of faithfulness to the scriptural teachings concerning Jesus and a rich appreciation for the classical and conciliar traditions of Christology.
