an encyclopedic handbook of facts and allusions in dubliners and a portrait of the artist as a young man this second edition is revised and enlarged from notes for joyce dubliners and portrait of the artist as a young man this group of fifteen brief narratives connected by a place and a time the city of dublin at the beginning of the twentieth century was written when james joyce was a precocious young graduate of university college with great subtlety and artistic restraint joyce suggests what lies beneath the pieties of dublin society and its surface drive for respectability suggesting the difficulties and despairs that were being endured on a daily basis in the homes pubs streets and offices of the city underemployment domestic violence alcoholism poverty hunger emotional and sexual repression no writer ever took more seriously the details history and culture of a particular place than joyce did with his home city and these stories combine dark humor with compassion and a searching eye for the causes of suffering this new edition s historical appendices include contemporary reviews among them one by ezra pound and materials on religion the struggle for irish independence and dublin s musical and performance culture more than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of the cambridge bibliography of english literature the design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition the task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries a study of james joyce s 1914 novel dubliner with critical commentary and an analysis of the text indeholder et udvalg af tidlig kritik og moderne kommentarer af harry levin brewster ghiselin frank o connor hugh kenner maurice beebe richard ellmann wayne c booth j i m stewart morris beja anthony burgess og john gross this book succeeds in providing an informed balanced introduction to the various works in the joyce canon free of the specialist s elaborate theses or encumbering apparatus the work flows with the mainstream of critical consensus making it a fitting and useful introduction to the student newly made aware of joyce s work for college community college and public libraries bringing together work from both disability studies and irish studies this book argues that the idea of ireland was constructed and developed in the long 19th century through notions of physical and cognitive difference offers discographies and reviews of recordings by hundreds of folk artists with suggestions on what to buy and what to avoid books recommended for undergraduate and college libraries listed by library of congress classification numbers this gathering of prose essays and reviews are taken from the columns of the irish press hibernia the crane bag and irish university review and poetry ireland a magazine he refounded in 1962 as well as from private unpublished papers
