The Book of Acts brings together leading Catholic, Orthodox, and Evangelical theologians to read and interpret the Book of Acts from within their ecclesial tradition while simultaneously engaging one another in critical dialogue. Combining both theological exegesis and ecumenical dialogue, each chapter is uniquely structured to facilitate a rich reading of Scripture and an engaging though critical dialogue across the traditions. Each chapter begins with a main essay by either a Catholic, Orthodox, or Evangelical theologian on a section of the Book of Acts. The main essay is followed by responses from theologians of the other two traditions. The chapter concludes with a final response from the main author. Readers are thus provided with not only a deep and engaging reading of the Book of Acts but also the unfolding of a rich theological ecumenical dialogue centered on Scripture. Anyone interested in understanding how our ecclesial traditions inform our reading of Scripture would do well to read this book as would anyone interested in the Book of Acts, ecumenical dialogue, and the theological interpretation of Scripture.
