the text examines issues from an historical perspective focusing on the idea that we can only understand the broader implications of issues by exploring them in a theoretical and historical context book jacket this book analyses the strategic and economic significance of the china pakistan economic corridor cpec with a particular focus on the region of balochistan given the history of multiple insurgencies that the pakistani military has confronted in balochistan the book examines the region s intricate conflict ecosystem and security landscape which poses potential threats to the cpec structured chronologically the book traces the evolution of the pakistani army s counterinsurgency practices inherited in 1947 from the british indian army s culture of fighting small wars through to the contemporary counterinsurgency coin adaptation in the war on terror and afterwards to the fifth round of the balochistan insurgency the analysis centres on the development of counterinsurgency theory and practice by the pakistani army it empirically investigates the efficacy of the coin strategy in balochistan the author argues that the approach significantly changed after conceptualising the doctrine especially from 2016 onwards from butcher and bolt to the inclusion of critical components like political primacy affect based and focused use of force winning hearts and minds and rules of engagement as a result there was reduced violence and an increased number of insurgent surrenders this book concludes that the pakistani army has largely controlled the insurgency in balochistan however simultaneously there is an urgent need to reduce tangible support to the insurgents through porous borders and implement an effective strategy to sever the nexus between the islamic state of khorasan iskp and the baloch insurgent organisations as well as the sectarian militant organisations in balochistan province this is crucial to ending the insurgency and ensuring the security of cpec a novel contribution to the study of counterinsurgency and the importance of cpec to china s foreign policy and diplomacy as well as its effects on the conflict dynamics in balochistan the book will be of interest to researchers studying war and conflict studies terrorism studies international relations security and strategic studies and south asian and chinese studies the once acrimonious debate on the existence of african philosophy has come of age yet the need to cultivate a culture of belonging is more demanding now than ever before in many african societies the gargantuan indelible energised chicanery waves of neo colonialism and globalisation and their sweeping effect on africa demand more concerted action and solutions than cul de sac discourses and magical realism it is in view of this realisation that this book was born this is a vital text for understanding contextual historical trends in the development of african philosophic ideas on the continent and how africans could possibly navigate the turbulent catadromous waters tangled webs and chasms of destruction and chagrin of struggles that have engrossed africa since the dawn of slavery and colonial projects on the continent the book aims to generate more insights and influence national continental and global debates in the field of philosophy it is accessible and handy to a wider range of readers ranging from educators and students of african philosophy anthropology african studies cultural studies and all those concerned with the further development of african philosophy and thought systems on the african continent the authors goal in writing the book was to provide the student with a thorough introduction to the theoretical premises historical setting structure and process and most important contemporary issues of world politics a consistent theme is the extent to which the interstate system itself is being challenged by the changes we explore they also chose to write a text that clearly intertwined empirical knowledge about the subject matter of world politics with the normative choices that confront decision makers and private citizens pref
