this is the first academic study of the impact of semi presidentialism in emerging democracies outside of europe semi presidentialism is where there is both a directly elected fixed term president and a prime minister who is responsible to the legislature for the most part semi presidentialism is seen as being a risky choice for new democracies because it can create potentially destabilizing competition between the president and prime minister and yet there are now more than fifty semi presidential countries in the world moreover many of these countries are in africa the former soviet union and asia often in places where democracy has yet to establish a firm foundation this study begins with a chapter that discusses the advantages and disadvantages of semi presidentialism and provides the theoretical framework for a wide ranging series of country chapters presented in the second part of the book written by country area specialists the case studies highlight the political processes at work in young semi presidential democracies semi presidentialism outside europe will appeal to those researching and studying in the fields of comparative politics development and democracy academic paper from the year 2022 in the subject politics region southeastern europe grade v course policy language english abstract the role of the international community in the kosovo serbia dialogue before the meeting in the usa between kosovo and serbia was evaluated as a small hope but perhaps for the slow achievement of peace the meeting in the usa had more of an economic character than a political one israel s recognition of kosovo was the only point that had great importance for kosovo but of course this conference had greater economic importance the attempt was to relax political relations through economic cooperation this conference seemed to have characters or meaning of relaxation and economic development between kosovo and serbia this conference is thought that it would open the possibility later i e the other stages to conclude the kosovo serbian dialogue according to kosovar analysts american engagement within the kosovo serbia dialogue is vital for the country due to the fact that according to them the brussels dialogue has not produced many results for 10 years now therefore in this context the only hope remains the usa the only hope remains the usa to end the frozen conflict and the obstacle of kosovo to be part of the un nato and eu integration so the kosovars want the usa as a strong and stable mediator because the usa knows how to use diplomacy even with sanctions and the americans do not allow the dialogue to drag on forever without a final solution
