war has been an ever present feature of human existence the analysis of wars has tended to focus on either their causes or the military and strategic consequences of a conflict this book argues that war can have a much wider impact across layers of society that go beyond international boundaries it presents a heuristic multi disciplinary framework for analysing the ripple and backwash effects across five connected analytical layers around the world material human capabilities economic values belief and attitudes policy and governance and power through this framework the book introduces a set of empirically rich and theoretically informed studies which examine the first consequences of the war in ukraine following the invasion of russia in february 2022 this multi disciplinary approach shows that the effects of the war were much deeper and sustained this volume will be of interest to students and scholars of international humanitarian law security studies peace and conflict studies and european history the chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of policy studies an inside look at women graffiti artists around the world since the dawn of hip hop graffiti writing on the streets of philadelphia and new york city in the late 1960s writers have anonymously inscribed their tag names on trains buildings and bridges passersby are left to imagine who the author might be and despite the artists anonymity graffiti subculture is seen as a boys club where the presence of the graffiti girl is almost unimaginable in graffiti grrlz jessica nydia pabón colón interrupts this stereotype and introduces us to the world of women graffiti artists drawing on the lives of over 100 women in 23 countries pabón colón argues that graffiti art is an unrecognized but crucial space for the performance of feminism she demonstrates how it builds communities of artists reconceptualizes the hip hop masculinity of these spaces and rejects notions of girl power graffiti grrlz also unpacks the digital side of hip hop graffiti subculture and considers how it widens the presence of the woman graffiti artist and broadens her networks which leads to the formation of all girl graffiti crews or the organization of all girl painting sessions a rich and engaging look at women artists in a male dominated subculture graffiti grrlz reconsiders the intersections of feminism hip hop and youth performance and establishes graffiti art as a game that anyone can play the new urban agenda nua adopted in 2016 at the united nations conference on housing and sustainable urban development habitat iii in quito ecuador represents a globally shared understanding of the vital link between urbanization and a sustainable future at the heart of this new vision stand a myriad of legal challenges and opportunities that must be confronted for the world to make good on the nua s promise in response this book which complements and expands on the editors previous volumes on urban law in this series offers a constructive and critical evaluation of the legal dimensions of the nua as the volume s authors make clear from natural disasters and resulting urban migration in honshu and tacloban to innovative collaborative governance in barcelona and turin to accessibility of public space for informal workers in new delhi and accra and power scales among brazil s metropolitan regions there is a deep urgency for thoughtful research to understand how law can be harnessed to advance the nua s global mission of sustainable urbanism it thus creates a provocative and academic dialogue about the legal effects of the nua which will be of interest to academics and researchers with an interest in urban studies
