in the general area of style study or stylistics there is no shortage of ideas definitions or published works it is hoped in the present volume to contribute to the prosperity of the discipline mainly by clarifying and exemplifying how pragmatic considerations may be relevant to any study of style in the conviction that pragmastylistics is more interesting and useful than stylistics on its own the starting point must be a brief survey of the definitions and style and stylistics the very form of the latter term suggests a scientific and orderly rather than an intuitive or impressionistic investigation of style there are two separate levels of study one a general methodical and scientific discipline the other an application of its methods or postulates to the analysis of the style of a specific utterance text speaker writer movement or period it is clear that in order to approach either we must first attempt to understand style ever wondered why your ceiling is shaped like the arches in a gothic cathedral or why your office building looks so different from its neighboring counterparts the abc of style invites you to explore the many different architectural and decorative interior styles from their ancient origins to the 1940s take a journey through history to see how the french aristocracy styled their palaces and castles to the simple designs of the dominican monastic churches during the middle ages often political changes implicate a stylistic transformation thus the different european styles were frequently named after a sovereign or a historical period renaissance style medieval style until the end of the nineteenth century the stylistic mutations of the time were generally based on the tastes of the royalty stylistic expression was therefore an affirmation of power the standard style guide of the christian publishing industry the christian writer s manual of style 4th edition compiled by veteran zondervan editor robert hudson contains clear guidance on style questions related to religious writing including many topics not addressed in other references or online nearly half of this fourth revision is made up of new material including information about turning blogs into books the effects of digital media on writing adverbial doubles vanishing accents word choice strategies endorser guidelines and much more it also contains an all new word list which makes up more than a third of the book the most needful information remains entries on capitalization abbreviation citations fictional dialogue and more but it has all been updated to keep pace with changes in english language usage this fourth edition also corresponds with the chicago manual of style 16th edition 2010 though it isn t afraid to chart new territory where that reference is unhelpful on issues of religious writing comprehensive yet easy to use the christian writer s manual of style 4th edition is a go to resource for christian authors pastors teachers copy writers editors proofreaders publishing and ministry professionals executive assistants and students anyone who writes or edits as a part of their work or study and for grammar aficionados everywhere the first monograph on the most important byzantine redactor of saints lives this book offers a detailed study of the life and working methods of symeon metaphrastes who was active towards the end of the tenth century the importance of the metaphrastic redaction has often been measured by the amount of damage it did to the late antique hagiographical texts but in the present study it is seen as the culmination of long term developments within this field the metaphrastic collection is studied in the context of its predecessors and in the gradual changes that occurred in the production of hagiography especially as to the social background of authors commissioners and even saints emphasis is laid on the gradual redistribution centralisation and upgrading of hagiographical texts that took place in the greek world and in this process rewriting is seen as a vehicle for a canonisation which even if never instituted in byzantium was the intention and to some degree the outcome of the metaphrastic redaction christian høgel phd is research fellow at the institute for greek and latin university of copenhagen he has formerly published a o digterjeg et i hellenistisk og augustisk poesi the poetic i in hellenistic and augustan poetry mtf 1992
