the fourth siam international conference on data mining continues the tradition of providing an open forum for the presentation and discussion of innovative algorithms as well as novel applications of data mining this is reflected in the talks by the four keynote speakers who discuss data usability issues in systems for data mining in science and engineering issues raised by new technologies that generate biological data ways to find complex structured patterns in linked data and advances in bayesian inference techniques this proceedings includes 61 research papers based on the needs of business marketing and social science students this book provides an accessible and easy to follow guide to survey data analysis the book avoids the more usual statistics driven perspective rather it provides an intuitive feel for handling survey data by emphasising that data analysis is more about understanding the research objectives what kinds of data have been collected how quantitative data were generated by the process of measurement how to create a data matrix and how to transform raw data before thinking about appropriate statistical calculations the author begins by considering what data are the different kinds of data that surveys generate and the tripartite format of all quantitative data the processes of measurement and the errors that may arise are carefully explained coverage of the creation and analysis of a data matrix using spss is then provided the author then reviews what kinds of statistical procedure are required for what kinds of data and for what purposes the book concludes by giving a review of strategies for coping with all the kinds of practical problems that arise in survey research reader friendly throughout data analysis a guide to market and social research provides numerous worked examples end of chapter questions and points for further discussion to help reinforce concepts learnt a data diskette containing the worked examples in spss is also provided in the back of the book also available is a companion website with extra features to accompany the text please take a look by clicking below palgrave.com/business/kent/index.asp
