the israel yearbook on human rights an annual published under the auspices of the faculty of law of tel aviv university since 1971 is devoted to publishing studies by distinguished scholars in israel and other countries on human rights in peace and war with particular emphasis on problems relevant to the state of israel and the jewish people the yearbook also incorporates documentary materials relating to israel and the administered areas which are not otherwise available in english including summaries of judicial decisions compilations of legislative enactments and military proclamations the volume presents an extensive investigation into the process of reforms of detention powers in today's china and offers an in depth analysis of the debates surrounding the reformist attempts the chapters in this collection demonstrate that legislative and institutional reforms in this area result from political opportunities openings and tensions at the central institutional levels of political authority and contingent social and political factors the book examines legal and institutional reforms to institutions of detention and imprisonment that have occurred since the 1990s with a particular focus on the 21st century its content follows three particular lines of enquiry concerning the issue of deprivation of liberty in contemporary china the first deals with the academic and theoretical debates on the subject of imprisonment and detention the related chapters explain the difficulties encountered in this area of research and understandings of the discourses of reform through labour in western and chinese scholarship the second deals with the specific issues of criminal and administrative forms of deprivation of liberty examining in particular the institutional and legislative dimensions considering the relationship between reforms and criminal justice policy agendas the third assesses the meaning of institutional reforms in the context of the changing state society relationship in contemporary china this book is about enforcing privacy and data protection it demonstrates different approaches regulatory legal and technological to enforcing privacy if regulators do not enforce laws or regulations or codes or do not have the resources political support or wherewithal to enforce them they effectively eviscerate and make meaningless such laws or regulations or codes no matter how laudable or well intentioned in some cases however the mere existence of such laws or regulations combined with a credible threat to invoke them is sufficient for regulatory purposes but the threat has to be credible as some of the authors in this book make clear it is a theme that runs throughout this book carrots and soft law need to be backed up by sticks and hard law the authors of this book view privacy enforcement as an activity that goes beyond regulatory enforcement however in some sense enforcing privacy is a task that befalls to all of us privacy advocates and members of the public can play an important role in combatting the continuing intrusions upon privacy by governments intelligence agencies and big companies contributors to this book including regulators privacy advocates academics smes a member of the european parliament lawyers and a technology researcher share their views in the one and only book on enforcing privacy
