war and architecture is a timely and moving response by architect lebbeus woods to the bombing of sarajevo with text in both english and croatian accompanied by the author's exquisitely drawn hauntingly beautiful proposals the book is both dedicated and addressed to the citizens of this ravaged city lebbeus woods has long been fascinated by the intimate ties between architecture and violence he identifies the two predominant patterns for rebuilding cities following catastrophic destruction restoring the city exactly to its previous historical state or erasing the remains of the city to construct a new utopia these he argues are twin forms of denial woods draws an analogy to the process of biological and emotional healing presenting architectural forms that act as injections scabs scars and new tissue within the complex organism of a city only by facing the insanity of willful destruction he argues can reason begin to believe again in itself in recent decades the development of advanced weaponry systems and the instant flow of information have redefined the notion of urban warfare as a local phenomenon with global effects in an increasingly interconnected world the annihilation of aleppo and the broadcasted demolitions of palmyra demonstrate the accelerating politicization of the destruction process in this timely volume elisa dainese aleksandar staničić and a broad range of contributors explore the weaponization of architecture targeted attacks on art and infrastructure meant to destroy not only physical structures but also political unity and cultural memory focusing on regions where planners architects and artists are involved in concrete initiatives on the ground war diaries looks at complex postwar settings to illuminate design responses to urban warfare and violence against the built environment the essays discuss creative strategies for rebuilding and restablizing damaged sites often within the context of continuing animosities the establishment of design coalitions to work with local communities on reconstruction the designing of emergency settlements the development of new and customized strategies for rebuilding diverse parts of the ravaged world and the teaching of culturally sensitive design practices to architects and urbanists among many other topics a much needed contribution to our understanding of postconflict design this volume maps the creative approaches that specialists have used to remediate the effects of violence against cities and cultural heritage
